

Mari-Linn Christmas Exercises Dec. 20

Lyons—Mari-Linn school in Lyons holds the annual Christmas program Wednesday, Dec. 20, at the Santiam Grange hall at 8 p.m. in Lyons.

The Christmas program is under the direction of Miss Vivian Boyce. Included in the program are dramatizations, music, and an all school chorus made up of 200 voices. The community is invited.

Christmas vacation begins Friday afternoon, Dec. 22, ends Jan. 2, 1951, according to information received from Thomas L. Putman, Mari-Linn superintendent of schools.

Scott Youngs Host Detroit Civic Club

The Scott Youngs sponsored the annual Christmas party of the Detroit Women's Civic club at the Marion Forks lodge this week.

Ruth Skidmore directed the singing of carols at the beginning of the party after which gifts were distributed. When Alice Moore and Dorothy Morgan finished the distribution of the gifts in a selective manner, bingo was played. As a player made bingo, then he was allowed to exchange his gift for that of his neighbor. Lunch was served cafeteria style to the group.

Guests taking part in the annual Christmas party were Mr. and Mrs. Earl Parker, Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Rasnick, Mr. and Mrs. John Cannon, Mr. and Mrs. Otis White, Mr. and Mrs. Carol Schlador, Mr. and Mrs. John Ray, Mr. and Mrs. Verne Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Moore, Bob Young, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Johnson, Mrs. Lloyd Leach, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Skidmore, Mrs. Gladys Claxton, and Mr. and Mrs. Ray Sophy.

Mrs. Ray Johnson celebrated her birthday at the party with a cake presented by Ruth Skidmore.

Lois Scott Heads Marilyn O. E. S.

Mrs. Lois Scott as worthy matron now heads the Marilyn chapter of the Order of Eastern Star lodge as a result of an election during this week's meeting in the Mill City I. O. O. F. hall.

Floyd Johnson was elected worthy patron; Wilson Stevens, associate patron; and Mrs. Albert Toman, Jr., associate matron of the lodge.

Mrs. Cecil Lake and Mrs. Clara Morris affiliated with the Marilyn chapter during the regular meeting. Fruit was contributed this week by the local group to the Masonic home in Forest Grove.

Mrs. Scott gave the names of the other officers elected this week as Laurel Johnson, conductress; Betty Tinney, associate conductress; Edith Mason, secretary; and Mary Tuers, treasurer.

Men of the lodge served lunch for those attending the election meeting.

Legion Ladies Meet At Toman Home

The American Legion Post No. 159 Auxiliary rummage and cooked food sale last Friday and Saturday fattened the Legion coffers to the extent of some $42, Mrs. Jack Colburn, president of the local Auxiliary revealed this week from information submitted by Mrs. J. T. King, chairman of the rummage sale.

The regular Auxiliary meeting was held in the Albert Toman, Sr., home where Mrs. Toman, Sr. and Mrs. Arthur Chase co-hosted the group.

Mrs. Colburn reported two unusual items of rummage as having been sold. The items of "rummage" were two cocker spaniel pups donated by Mrs. Boez of Gates.

Those enjoying the hospitality in the Toman home during the Auxiliary meeting were Mrs. Frank Stovall, Mrs. John Muir, Mrs. Campbell Stewart, Mrs. Al Stahlman, Mrs. C. A. Bruder, Mrs. Ernest Ragsdale, Mrs. Norman Jensen, Mrs. Jack Colburn, and Mrs. J. T. King.

Bertha Baltimore Heads Lodge New Year's Fete

Santiam Rebekah lodge met in regular session Wednesday night of last week in Mill City.

In charge were Hazel Nelson, noble grand and Mabel Schroeder, past noble grand, acting as vice grand. Receiving the Rebekah degree was Doramie Kadin.

Used for the first time during initiation was a new electric 3-Links, made by W. R. Olmstead and given to the lodge.

Committees were appointed for the next meeting night which will include the Christmas party and gift exchange. There was some discussion concerning the New Year's Eve annual turkey supper at which time the Odd Fellows and Rebekahs join for a social evening and watch party. Odd Fellows will furnish the turkeys for the supper.

Bertha Baltimore was appointed general chairman for the New Year's Eve festivities.
