Harry Keiser Escapes Serious Injury in Gates
Gates—Harry Keiser escaped serious injury the first of the week when his tractor was struck by a speeding car and overturned. Keiser was thrown off and under the tractor. He was engaged in hauling wood with the tractor and trailer. As he was crossing the highway with a load, a car coming from the upper valley failed to stop before hitting the tractor broadside.
The accident occurred just east of the city limits, in front of the Keiser home, where a straight-of-way extends in both directions with unobstructed view.
Dick Turpin reports that Ed Stauffer, inspector for the Oregon State Board of Barbers Examiners, visited Mill City barbers this week.
