

Mayor Albert Toman has been confined to his home a part of this week in order that he could properly nurse a rather stubborn cold troubling him.

MILL CITY

Mr. and Mrs. George Laird are leaving Mill City soon because Mr. Laird has been called to duty with the army. Mrs. Laird will stay in California near the camp where Lieutenant Laird will be stationed.

Miss Daisy Hendricson visited the Bob Spences, her relatives, in Salem this week.

Mrs. Delbert Jenkins expects the Don Jenkins family, Oliver and Wiley Muise as Christmas dinner guests. Mrs. Jenkins lost her large Bible this week near Red's Hill Top Trading Post and offers a reward for its return.

Mr. and Mrs. James C. King left this week for Albuquerque, New Mexico, for a visit with Mr. King's parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Cooke and two daughters, Donna and Carol, are leaving this week for a holiday vacation and visit with Jim Cooke in Los Angeles, Calif. Jim is a sophomore in the University of Southern California. The Cookes will drive to Riverside, Calif., and other areas for short visits with friends and relatives.

Glen V. Sorensen, Mill City lawyer, will spend part of the holiday season in Portland with relatives and the remainder of the time with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Sorensen in Lyle, Wash.

The W. R. Greens during Christmas, for the first time in 12 years, are having in their home all their children. Coming are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Thompson and boys from St. Mary's, Idaho, and Mr. and Mrs. Lee Kuhlman of Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Peterson's son, Ramon, came home for the Christmas vacation from Oregon State college this week. Ramon is in his first year at the state college.

Mrs. Edna Bodle of Mill City and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Porter from Toledo visited Mrs. Bodle's son, Jay Bodle, in Lebanon. The Porters, after spending a few days with Mrs. Bodle in Mill City, this week returned home.

Mrs. James Poole is helping out in the Mill City post office during the holiday rush.

"Bill" and Helen Eliason and son, Johnny, from Albany were in Mill City over the weekend visiting.

Miss Frances Caraway, daughter of Frank Caraway, Linn county deputy sheriff, visited this week in Mill City and announced she will come down from Portland again for Christmas with her parents in Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Lake had as their guests this week, their son, his wife and two babies, Mr. and Mrs.

Jack Coryell, Terry and Shannon of Terrebonne; a niece of Mrs. Lake, Mrs. Ace Maus and her husband and son, Johnny of Terrebonne; Mr. Ray Sheppard of Powell Butte; and Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Stone of Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. Howard Timms of Mongold visited at the Dick Turpin home over the weekend. Mrs. Timms is Dick Turpin's niece. Mr. Timm is a government engineer.

Paul (Oregon's Walking Man) Smith has done prospecting for valuable mineral bearing rock with considerable success lately. Smith disclosed that unless snow hampers he will be able to push development work ahead rapidly.

LeRoy Kellogg of Mill City who was seriously injured at the Detroit dam on November 9 is back home again after a stay in the Salem Memorial hospital.

The Paul Hansen family is this week vacationing in California with Mrs. Hansen's relatives.

The Russell Kings are visiting relatives in Seattle over the holidays.

Mrs. Irene Spicer of Sweet Home, formerly of Mill City, was in the city this week getting medical attention from her doctor, Dr. Jack Reid. She reports her son, Sgt. Geo. E. Spicer, an x-ray technician, is in Tokyo.

Wiley Muise, nephew of Mrs. Anna Jenkins, has been confined with a very serious dose of poison oak.

Dr. and Mrs. David J. Ferguson left for Los Angeles this week where they will vacation with her son, Bob Dawes and wife during the holidays.

Home again in the James Swan home will be their daughters, Mrs. Odermann from Aumsville and Mrs. George Gillenwater of Eugene for the Christmas holiday.

Al Yankus is recovering at home from injuries suffered when injured in a logging accident the 8th of December near Quartzville. Mr. Yankus' face was severely lacerated.

Shower Held Honoring Lloyd Free's Spouse

Lyons—Mrs. Berneice Bridges and Mrs. Martha Etzel were hostesses for a shower honoring Mrs. Lloyd Free, held at the Herman Free home Tuesday evening.

After opening of the gifts refreshments were served to Rose Schwindt, Ida Free, Gertrude Jungwirth, Lucille Huber, Nadine Duggan, Doreene Helmen, Lelola Phelps, Dorothy Helemn, Golda Brassfield, Wilma Free, Lavea Mullins, Moraine Free, and Mrs. Mullins.

Oregon Girl Wins 4-H Achievement Sectional Honors

Margaret Colegrove, 19, of Junction City, was chosen Sectional Winner in the 1950 Achievement Program, and was awarded an all-expense trip to the Chicago 4-H Club Congress provided by the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work. She is now eligible to compete for national honors.

Margaret Colegrove

A 4-H'er for 10 years, Margaret has completed 90 projects, specializing in Dairy, Canning, Food Preparation, Garden, Health and Safety. She has made 123 exhibits at County Fairs, and 46 at State. She has participated in 19 judging events, and entered 22 Livestock Showmanship Contests, winning numerous awards. Margaret was one of the four delegates from Oregon to the National 4-H Camp at Washington, D. C., this year. As president and leader of her club for five years she has been active in all phases of club, church and community work, and has consistently helped and inspired younger members with their projects. Margaret is now attending Oregon State College and is in her junior year.

A Friendly Place
To While Away
Your Idle Hours

RICHARD'S
TAVERN
GATES

Merry
Christmas

may the New Year bring you everything your heart desires

GLEN'S
BARBER SHOP
Gates

FLASH! - - FLASH!

Just arrived for your last minute shopping ! !

- GENERAL ELECTRIC STEAM IRONS
- TOASTMASTER AUTOMATIC TOASTERS
- HAMILTON BEACH MIXERS
- FRYWELL DEEFPAT FRYERS
- GENERAL ELECTRIC WAFFLE IRONS
- ALL SIZES CHRISTMAS TREE LIGHTS
- RECORDS ..WW
- MOTOROLA and STROMBERG CARLSON RADIOS

AT Stiffler's Radio & Appliance Co.

"35 miles from nearest parking meter"

Sales and Service MILL CITY Phone 902

Merry Greetings

As the light of Christmas
again brightens our faces,
our eyes, and our hearts, we turn our thoughts to others.
May the inspiration, happiness and peace of the holiday season — our sacred heritage, be with us always.

HILL TOP GENERAL STORE

Albert and Mary Toman
Mill City

Sincerest wishes for a Joyous Holiday Season

MILL CITY VARIETY

Jim and Irene O'Leary

Greetings

AND ALL GOOD WISHES
FOR CHRISTMAS

Mill City Pharmacy

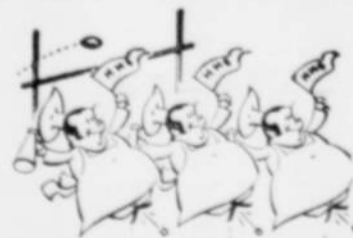

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Kimmel

Merry Christmas

to You and Yours... and a
Happy, Prosperous New Year

Kliwer Quality Meats

MASTER BREAD
Popular... because it's Good!

Greetings
for a
FRIENDLY
CHRISTMAS

Idanha Shingle Co., Inc.
Idanha