Juniors Win Plaque

The parents of the Junior class were represented with the largest attendance at this month's PTA meeting; therefore the Juniors won the plaque presented by the PTA to the best represented class. This is the second time they have won it.

Christmas Vacation

The high school will come to a close at the end of this week for the Christmas vacation. The students will return to school the second of January.

Christmas Party

Friday afternoon the students of Mill City high will celebrate Christmas in an assembly program. The Junior class is in charge of the assembly. Mr. La Cours has been asked to read a Christmas story, the music class, will sing "All I Want for Christmas", "Santa Claus Is Coming To Town", "Carol of the Bells", and "O Holy Night"; and Bob Shelton will read the Christmas story from the Bible. The Keyes brothers will play a few Christmas songs. Ardith Jones will accompany the group singing. The students will also enjoy a Christmas gift exchange.

The Arthur Krievers spend Christmas in Salem.

LYONS

By EVA BRESSLER

About twenty of the Youth Fellowship group went caroling Sunday evening under the direction of Miss Vivian Boyce. They met at the George Huffman home at 7 p.m., and did a fine job touring throughout the town. Following the caroling they went to the home of Mrs. Alice Huber where games and dainty refreshments were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Julian and his mother, Mrs. Catherine Julian, left Saturday morning for Shelton, Wash., where they will visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Free are the parents of a baby girl born Sunday morning at the Salem General hospital. This is their third child and second daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Corbett were Sunday dinner guests at the home of her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bressler. They also visited at the home of Mrs. Addie Davis in Stayton.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Royce and daughter, Imogen, visited with relatives at Cottage Grove Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Olmstead and infant son, James Earl, were brought home Sunday from the Salem Memorial hospital.

Mrs. Hallie Downer was hostess for the meeting of the Home Economics club of the Santiam Valley grange held at her home Tuesday afternoon. Various plans were made and discussed. Plans were made for serving the dinner for the Soil Conservation meeting held January 10. Present were Mrs. Frank Basl, Mrs. Elmer Taylor, Mrs. Floyd Bassett, Mrs. Dallas Franklin, Mrs. Albert Julian, Mrs. George Basl, Mrs. Steve Dark.

Mrs. Hugh Johnston was hostess for the pre-school mothers club held at her home Wednesday evening. Much discussion was held for the coming year and plans were made for the Christmas party which will be held Friday, December 22. Present were Mesdames Orlan Elwood, Jim Phelps, Marwin Edwards, Ivan Smith, Calvin Trahan, John Prideaux, Charles Power, Earl Thayer, Art Lantzer, Hugh Johnston, Mrs. Meutzel and Mrs. Alice Huber.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bridges are spending several days at Tillamook looking after business affairs.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Olmstead are the parents of a baby boy born last Wednesday morning. The young man weighed 8 lbs. and 4 ozs.

Glen Julian is carrying his left arm in a sling. He had the misfortune of injuring his hand while at work at the Philippi tire shop in Mehama. He broke his little finger in three places and the joint next to his hand.

Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Long and his daughter, Mrs. Lester Hair of Oregon City, visited Elmer Hiatt Wednesday afternoon. They also visited at the Amos Hiatt home. Long is a nephew of the Hiatts.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Burke of Birmingham, Iowa, visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bass. Mr. and Mrs. Burke are cousins of Mrs. Bass.

Santiam Valley Grange Celebrates Christmas

Lyons—Santiam Valley grange celebrated Christmas by a social meeting plus a Christmas party at the hall this week.

The hall was beautifully decorated by carrying out the Christmas motif. A treat of candy, nuts, apples and oranges went to those present.

Christmas carols were sung, and a gift exchange was enjoyed. During the evening games furnished amusement.
