Stayton Gym Sees
Basketball Tourney

Mill City, Stayton, Sublimity, and Philomath basketball teams compete in a two-night basketball tournament in the new Stayton high school gymnasium starting tonight at 8 p.m.

Each night two games are scheduled on a single elimination basis. First round pairings will be determined by a group drawing just prior to playing tonight.

Winners and losers tonight determines opponents for tomorrow night's play. Tonight's losers play for third place Friday, and tonight's winners compete for the title tomorrow at 8:30 p.m.

Joe Boyle, Stayton coach, supervises the two-day tournament, the first in Stayton's new gym.

IDANHA

By REBA SNYDER

The Idanha Community church Christmas program Saturday night was attended by a large number of appreciative persons. The Christmas story told in pageant and songs by the adults and young people and the recitations and exercises by the children were enjoyed by all. Treats were provided by Ted and Alma Gillespie.

Mrs. Athol Savage is improving in a Bend hospital. She was home for Christmas dinner but returned to the hospital that night.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Hamilton and son and Mr. and Mrs. Herold Perton and baby are spending the holidays in their home towns in Arkansas.

The Vernon Hallford and Glen Willis family spent part of their vacation in the home of Mrs. Willis' parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Morgan, in McMinville, also visiting relations in Willamina. The Hallfords were Christmas dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schaffer.

Mr. and Mrs. George Barney and family were holiday guests in the home of Barney's brother, Lars Barney and family at Sublimity.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bowers were weekend guests on the coast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Ward at Newberg.

Cagers Display Unusual Talents

The Basketball Jamboree at Gates Wednesday evening brought out some surprising talent.

The first game of the evening saw the CBI Engineers avenge a pre-season loss by whipping Detroit 35-24. The Detroiters were hampered by the small floor after having become more familiar with their college-size court at home.

The Gates five surprised no one by downing the inexperienced Mill City Rockets, but they did so by scoring 55 points, to the Rockets' 31. 55 points in only 30 minutes of basketball on such a small floor is quite a feat. Those boys, led by Don Carey, are the smoothest, best shooting outfit to show themselves during the evening. A better basketball team will be hard to find in the North Santiam Valley league.

The scrappiest, and most thrilling game of the evening was furnished by Aumsville and Sublimity. These two teams, made up of young, aggressive, ball players, were almost evenly matched. However, Sublimity manager to nose out Aumsville by a 36-34 margin.

League play begins in earnest on Monday, January 8, with a seventh team, Scio, added. The first two weeks games are as follows:

January 8

- Scio vs. Mill City *
- Detroit vs. CBI Engineers *
- Sublimity vs. Aumsville *
- Gates vs. Bye.

January 10

- Gates vs. Scio *
- Mill City vs. Sublimity *
- CBI Engineers vs. Aumsville *
- Detroit vs. Bye.

* Denotes home team (CBI Engineers home floor is the Gates gym). All games are to begin at 8 p.m.

MILL CITY
