

DETROIT

By OPAL M. WHITE

Considerable interest has been shown by members of the junior and senior classes of the high school in the tryouts for the play to be given on April 6 at the school gymnasium. The title of the play, "Nuts and Bolts" is under the direction of Charlene Hanan.

Applications for the vacancy caused by Miss Isabella Mason's resignation are being received. Miss Mason will leave on February 1st.

Gervais high school basketball team will play Detroit at Detroit on Friday evening at seven o'clock. Just half of the games in the league have been played to date, so this will be the second game with each team.

Plans are under way to organize a Sunday school at Mongold, due to the fact that there are so many children unable to attend Sunday school either at Idanha or Detroit.

Otis White, principal of the high school, attended the Principal's Conference in Eugene on Friday and Saturday of last week. The session began at noon on Friday and closed Saturday afternoon at four.

The moving picture "The Salt of the Earth" was fairly well attended on last Sunday evening, at the Detroit Christian church. It was shown by Ralph Sigmund of Stayton. Mr. Sigmund plans to come again when weather conditions are a bit more settled and hopes to have a larger turnout at that time. Sunday school elections were held last Sunday morning. Those elected were Mrs. Otis White, superintendent; Mr. H. C. Payne, assistant superintendent; and Mrs. Frank Crowell, secretary-treasurer.

R. C. Smith, son of Mrs. Opal Smith has been absent from school for three weeks, with pneumonia. He is one of the first grade pupils. Fifteen children from the first and second grades have been absent with colds and similar ailments.

Anna Pearl and Violet McLaughlin have returned to Detroit grade school after having dropped last fall. Anna Pearl is one of the yell leaders for Detroit grade school, they are the daughters of Mrs. J. C. Hartvig.

Detroit grade school was broken into on Sunday evening, and although Mr. Cannon and janitor Perry Wiggins have been unable to discover any damage, yet the door to the Cold room was standing wide open, the cover to the motor had been removed but apparently nothing else was disturbed. Mr. Cannon reports locking the Cold room himself the last thing before leaving school on Friday. Mr. Wiggins reported that the boards had been removed from the wood chute but nothing is discovered missing.

Deanha parent teachers will meet at the Detroit grade school on Thursday evening at eight o'clock, January 25. Following the business meeting the program will consist of study groups, one for pre-school led by Alice Moore, the topic: Troubled parent, troubled child. There will be one group for school age led by John Cannon, the topic: Discipline, the role of punishment and reward. An adolescent group led by Otis White, the topic: Maintaining diplomatic relations with your teen-ager. We were unable to secure the film "Looking forward to marriage" but have secured one entitled "Your child and you."

Mrs. Lloyd Leache's fourth grade will present a puppet show entitled "Johnny and the Imps". The children have been working for some weeks constructing the puppets and working up this 4 H health play. Joan Cauble will sing.

Ron Morgan, former student of the Detroit high school was a visitor here for the Sublimity game on Friday evening. Ron was on the first team last year and is attending Springfield high this year, his parents having moved to that city.

The Detroit high school played Mill City in a close game at Mill City on Tuesday evening. The game belonged pretty much to Mill City until well into the third quarter when Detroit gained and finally passed Mill City. The Oregon Deaf school will play Detroit at Detroit on Friday night, January 19, beginning at seven o'clock.

Is it "Catching"?

MR. D.A.'s CRIME CALENDAR

JANUARY is the Month for . . .

CRIMES OF VIOLENCE: End-of-the-year parties have their share of violent aftermaths which, unfortunately, seem to continue without diminishing throughout the month. As usual, the innocent suffer most. Expect everything from violations of liquor laws and traffic-driving laws to aggravated assault.

LARCENY: Debts incurred fulfilling holiday obligations are partially to blame for those reports of larceny and theft cropping up on police blotters. It's a shame, but many a new crime career is about to get under way—and the crime calendar is already too full of veteran practitioners to contain a new class of graduates.

FIXED GAMES: Wherever there are gamblers there'll be cries of, "The game is fixed!" Basketball is no exception. The betting set dote on the court game, and wherever rabid fans buck up against the bookie's odds then you'll hear the cry. I predict at least one major scandal and investigation.

CIVIC SCANDAL: New hands, in many communities, take office and control of local governing machines. Somebody always scans old records and, by way of starting off clean rule with a new broom, charges and counter-charges of corruption are aired just about now.

17-Year-old Mother Wins Baking Award

NEW YORK — New made star Ruth Derousseau outshines such stellar personalities as Art Linkletter and Arthur Godfrey at Pillsbury's Grand National Bake-off II at the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, December 11 and 12. The 17-year-old mother of two from Rice Lake, Wisconsin, outshone twenty-four other junior finalists. She first learned of her success at a show case luncheon in the Waldorf's plush Starlight Roof where 100 women gasped and sighed through six major and six minor awards, presented by the Duchess of Windsor, totaling $130,000 and including a top senior section prize of $25,000 and a complete electric kitchen.
