Mill City Shades Gates For Win

Taking to the shuffleboard field of battle again Gates and Mill City engaged in a struggle for proving just who has the most pucker skill; Gates came away from the smoke of battle second best.

Bothering Mill City, however, is the fact that Gates loaned them two players for this match. Of course, Gates insists these two individuals were the best they had! Since the competition was pretty stiff for Mill City all down the line, it seems that Gates might well have been too charitable in loaning players of such high quality.

The Mill City team of Alice Hoeye-Johnny Gilworth ranged high of all with 37 points. Al and Inez Haun of Mill City crowded high with 36 points. Third slot for Mill City went to Dot and Roy Morris with a 32-point score.

Gates team Gib Brosig-Orville Hayward pointed high with 35 for Gates. Along came Gates team Lynn Young-Percy Mulligan as second winner for high for Gates with a nice 32 points. Hot on the neck of second berth winners was the team of Gene Gibson-Carl Johnson with 31 points.

Happily winning for Mill City Tavern were Geo. Stewart, Bill Obershaw, Inez and Edgar Alton Haun, Alice Hoeye, Johnnie Gilworth, Ernie and Margie Jose, Pete Catherwood, Louie Clifton, Dot and Roy Morris, Gladys Meeks, Irwin Goble, Merle Stewart, Gale Dorothy, J. O. Herron and McGee who tallied a total of 247 counters.

Richards Tavern representatives turning on the heat with a nice 220 total score for Gates were Gib Brosig, Orville Hayward, Chuck Mason, Elton Brown, Bud Bally, Roy Masters, Lois Brosig, Betty Hayward, Carl Johnson, Gene Gibson, Marie Herron, Bernie Kinard, Edd Kesterson, Lynn Young, Percy Mulligan, Bob Young, and Lou Mulligan.

Meander Inners Feel Very Proud

To date the Meander Inn shufflers listed below have not been beaten this season. In fact several players are beginning to grow small lumps on their ankles as though they may be growing spurs similar to those of a fighting rooster (or is it swollen ankles?).

The game with Rendezvous at Stayton Tuesday, Feb. 13, was played by Mill Citizens Ray Bushnell, Velma Sturges, Pete Peterson, Tony Ziebert, Lila Bushnell, Edna Jenkins, Betty Peterson, Jean Scharback, Fred Winburn, Marge Ditter, Bernice Bigger, Ronnie Klecker and last but not least, a great substitute, Charles Ramsby. These pucksters amassed a score of 158 for the local team.

Playing for Stayton were Dick Baron, Lee Horner, Elmer Hastings, Chick Walker, Les Browning, Addy Sampson, Bill Bodenheimer, Fred Knieling, Everett Ward, Tony Sample, Jess Booth and Jentzen Carstensen. Stayton got a 145 tally.

Mill City Knocks Detroit's Chip

After the shellacking Mill City shufflers took recently, they came home much miffed at the defeat and vowed firmly there would be a change in things—result, Mill City snarled the ambitions and defenses of Detroit so badly Tuesday night that Mill City won 126 against Detroit's offering of 92.

This was a blood and thunder game and Mill City was high-balling for a win—things paid off.

In there scooting 'em down the waxed board for Mill City Tavern were Alice Hoeye, Johnnie Gilworth, Jack and Barbara Enlow, Al Haun, Cy Flook, Benny Bennett, Bill Obershaw, Byron and Tally Davis.

Covering up from the Mill City blast were Detroiters Francis Stout, Lee Harrison, Estaline Halbert, Gale Fagan, Ann Fagan, Roy McKuver, Irene Stout, Art Hansen, Bobbie Renner, and Bill McCauley.

Detroit may damage Mill City Tuesday, Feb. 20, here in the next shuffle league game in Mill City.

MT. HOOD 'SKIWAY' PROVES POPULAR

Mt. Hood's "Skiway", reputed as the world's largest and longest aerial tram, started operation recently.

The route of the "Skiway" stretches dizzily from the Skiway terminal building, just southwest of Government Camp to Timberline Lodge.

Ideal skiing conditions have caused the new boon to skiers to get a thorough workout. The popularity of the new type tram grows by leaps and bounds as each thrilled passenger descends from it.
