POUND AND ROBISON ATTEND SCIO MEET

Mrs. Harold Pound, president, and Mrs. Art Robison, treasurer of the Mill City Garden club attended the business meeting of the presidents of garden clubs of Zone 2, Santiam district, in Scio last Wednesday.

Mrs. Charles Dolezal announces there will be an all day garden club district meeting in the Scio high school on May 19.

Mill City Garden club is slated as one of the hostess clubs for that meeting.

Valentine Party For Fire Laddies

Mill City Firemen and Auxiliary celebrated Valentine day with a card party in the Mill City fire hall which was lavishly decorated for the special Saturday night occasion.

Auxiliary members, Marge Ditter, Laverne Knowles and Virginia Olmstead, aptly and beautifully carried out the Valentine day motif in table and room decoration.

Alice Estenson, Elma Stewart, and Irene Podrabsky supervised the canasta and other entertainment for the evening. Canasta players were divided into a man's group and a woman's group. Mrs. "Tex" Blazek reports high scorer among the women as being Irene Podrabsky and Audrey Cole as low. For the men Clarence Estenson was awarded the prize for high, and John Muir the low one.

After the card game, ping pong and pool activity, some 32 firemen and their ladies were treated to a pot-luck lunch.

DETROIT CHURCH SEES MOVIE

The Detroit Christian church sponsors a movie on Sunday evening, Feb. 18, at the church beginning at 7:30. The picture will be shown by Ralph Sigmund of Stayton and the title of the picture is "The Journey Into Faith".

Everyone is welcome. No charge for the picture. The Youth meeting precedes the picture and starts at 6 o'clock.

The Sunday school is gradually growing and begins at 9:45, preaching at 11, Leland Keithly, minister. The public is invited.

New Mill City citizen, Miss Janet Veness, is shown in slumberland in a glass-enclosed nursery. Janet, recent addition to the Robert P. Veness family, caused a stir in newspaper circles when she, at the ripe old age of 15 minutes, was photographed by Daddy Veness before he was allowed to hold her in his arms!

Mill City Welcomes Miss Janet Veness

Besides being Mr. Average Man by passing out cigars to local businessmen and citizens in celebration of the birth of a new daughter, Robert P. Veness, owner and operator of the Mill City Theatre and recent March of Dimes local chairman, took pictures of Miss Janet, his third daughter, a few minutes after her entry into this world.

Little Janet saw the light of day at 7:40 p.m., February 6, and at 7:55 p.m. the same day Bob focused his trusty Speed Graphic camera upon the sleeping countenance of his newest as she lay in her bed in a germ-proof plate glass enclosure. The Capital Journal printed Janet's photo.

No one seems aware of Mrs. Veness' thoughts about all this attention to her third child, but, be that as it may, Mr. Veness has proudly proclaimed to all that Janet is his fine possession and few doubt that Mrs. Veness disagrees.

Carol 9, and Shirley 5, sisters of Janet, of course, are happy to have home again their mother and their now famous sister.

Isabel Mason Honored By Orville Downings

Miss Isabel Mason, bride-elect of Robert Bushman of Boulder, Colo., was honored at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing of Lyons Sunday.

Isabel will be leaving for Colorado where she will be married. Places were set for the bride-elect, Miss Isabel Mason, Mrs. Edith Mason, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Carleton and Larry, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing of Lyons, Duane Downing and the hostess, Miss Juanita Downing, of Portland.

FRED EVANS FAMILY HONORED

Idanha—A good fellowship meeting was held at the Heibert home in Idanha last Saturday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans and family were the honored guests. Mr. Evans is a student of the Christian college at Eugene and is supply pastor of the Idanha Community church at this time.

Those present to enjoy the evening were Mr. and Mrs. James McKinney and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Roney and Lynda, Mr. and Mrs. Evans and children, and Mrs. Jerry Pittam and daughters, Sherry and Patty.

World Prayer Day Noted By Mill City Churches

Mill City churches noted World Prayer Day in Mill City at the Presbyterian church by a program conducted by Mrs. Lester Hathaway, president of the Missionary society.

The spiritual was led by Mrs. James Swan. Others active in the Prayer day ceremonies were Dr. D. J. Ferguson, minister of the Presbyterian church; Mr. Hugh Jull, pastor of the First Christian church in Mill City; Mrs. Teeters of Mehama, Mrs. Ferguson, Mrs. John Swan, also Mrs. Chance, who explained the purpose of a free will offering.

Mrs. Donald Sheythe, Mrs. Russell Kelly, Mrs. Chas. Kelly, Mrs. Arthur Chase, Mrs. Shields Remine and Mrs. D. B. Hill gave the main musical and vocal offerings of the service.

Joan Long Hosts Gates Lucky 12 Card Clnb

Joan Long, as hostess, this afternoon set the stage for a pleasant session of pinochle play for the Gates Lucky Twelve pinochle club at the Parkway Trailer Court east of Gates.

Subsequent to a dessert luncheon of pineapple upside-down pie and coffee served by hostess Long, Lucy Long cornered the 300 pinochle and never relinquished it the remainder of the afternoon, plus this she earned first prize. Jean Wilson had placed in her possession second prize.

Due to the absence of one Lucky Twelve member, two tables of three were arranged for the carrying out of the day's competition.

Garden Club's Food Sale Brings In $33

Mrs. Charles Dolezal, chairman of the Mill City Garden club's Valentine day cooked food sale in Jenkin's hardware store in Mill City, reports a profit of $33 on the day's selling.

The many lovely cakes, pies, cookies, and hot dishes sold out by early afternoon. Demand for hot dishes exceeded the club's supply.

Mrs. Dolezal expresses her appreciation for the donations and help given the cooked food sale and on behalf of the Garden club promises more hot dishes in the next food sale.

Guests in the Frank Jackson home recently were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jackson, Jr., and Judy of Astoria and John Jackson of Ft. Lewis, Wash.

Local Legion Sponsors Special Card Session

The Mill City American Legion and Auxiliary sponsored get-together and get-acquainted card party last Thursday night in the Legion hall engendered much good will for the Legion in the Mill City area.

Forty-two Legionnaires and their guests thoroughly enjoyed themselves during canasta, pinochle, and bridge card games played during the evening.

High score prizes in bridge went to Carl Watt and Mrs. Robert Watt. Pinochle winners were Cliff Large and Mrs. Henry Calkins. Canasta prize takers were Frank Dell and Mrs. Ed Yarnell.

Mrs. Carl Watt, Robert Watt, Mrs. Dick Paynter, and Mrs. Norman Jensen happily assumed rights to door prizes offered by the Legion last Thursday.

Lyons Card Club Meets In Rebekah Hall

The Wednesday afternoon card club party was held at the Lyons Rebekah hall with Mrs. Orville Downing hostess.

Following a one-thirty dessert luncheon, several tables of 500 were in play. Dorothy Hellemn held the high score, Thelma Nydigger second high, Lavy Mullins low, and Frances Bailey drew the door prize.

Present for Mrs. Downing's party were Mabel Bass, Garnett Bassett, Wilma Free, Doreen Hellemn, Carrie Naue, Modena Carleton, May Patton, Effie Heineck, Eulalia Lyons, Bernice Bridges, Lavy Mullins, Frances Bailey, Thelma Nydigger, and Dorothy Hellemn.
