GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Heath entertained relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Heath from Klamath Falls, Mrs. Ora Heath of Ashland, and Mrs. Lavern Heath of Brownsville, at their home last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Taylor of Dallas were recent over-night guests at the Heath home. Mrs. Heath and Taylor are brother and sister.

Shopping and visiting in Salem one day last week, from Gates, were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Barney Ryal and daughter, Joan, Mrs. Walter Brisbin and grand-daughter, Birdie Larson and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Volkel.

Gates folk attending the 55th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gooch, Sunday in Mill City were Mrs. Rosa Roten, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Davis, "T" Henness and Mrs. Lily Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Henness and Mrs. Lily Lake were among those attending a birthday dinner at the home of Mrs. Ida Geddes in Mill City Friday evening, Feb. 15. It has been the custom of a group of old friends, all old-timers in this community, for many years to entertain at dinner those among the group whose birthdays occur in February.

Mrs. Lincoln Henness, whose birthday is Feb. 14, and Mrs. Lake, Feb. 9, were among those honored.

A wedding which was an event of Saturday, Feb. 10, in Portland, will be of interest to the friends and former schoolmates of Marshall Lee Lake. Miss Mary Z. Ardipee, of Portland and Mr. Lake were married on that date. The ceremony was held in the St. John Christian church. Rev. Howard Cole read the vows. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Russel Currey. The groom is the eldest son of Russel Lake and Mrs. Roy Miller of Portland.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap were their son-in-law, E. W. Klecker, daughters, Janet and Kristene, and son Jeffery of Stayton.

Some folks like their weather rugged! Saturday afternoon Mrs. John LaHaie and Mrs. Jess Moses, dissatisfied with our mild winter, drove to Marion Forks, where it was snowing hard and plenty of the stuff already on the ground—just for the fun of throwing snow balls at each other and building a couple of snow men. Upon their return home they brought a bit of winter with them—it spit snow here all day Sunday.

Mrs. Ollie Plant, accompanied by her sister, Mrs. Fred Soriano, of Portland left last week for an extended visit in Jotutla, Morelos, Old Mexico. They are the guests of their brother, R. A. Burnette and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Baker, residents of Gates for a number of years, now of Forest Grove, were in Gates last week. They sold their home here recently, which was located east of town on the Linn county side of the river. Mrs. Elmer Cooper returned from Lakeview last Friday, where she had spent the week. Mr. and Mrs. James S. Clair of Lakeview brought Mrs. Cooper and her household gods to Gates, where she will remain during her husband's illness.

Mr. Cooper had as his visitor Friday, his sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Sweet and daughter and his step-father Jack Vester, all of Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Knutson had as their dinner guests one day last week, L. T. Henness and his daughter, Mrs. Lily Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Case of Salem were dinner guests at the home of Mr. Henness and Mrs. Lake last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison and son, Gerald, attended the spring wholesale show in Portland Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Gordon and family have moved into the Butler home south of the school house. They formerly occupied the house owned by Victor Herron, east of Gates, in Linn county. Mr. and Mrs. Herron and family, whose apartment was damaged by fire, in Mill City last week, will move into their home here.

Mrs. Edward Chance wishes to announce that two films on cancer will be shown Friday evening, March 9, at the high school auditorium at 8 p.m. The program is sponsored by the Marion county health association and the Marion county home demonstration department. Dr. James Hawthorth of Salem will be present and will lecture and answer questions. There will be no charge.

Quality job printing at the Enterprise.

"SMALL BUSINESS"

By C. WILSON HARDER

As Jimmie Durante says, "Everybody's getting in the act." Leaders of independent business, even labor, looking at the newest proposal of the Food and Drug Administration, are wondering "What meat doth this Caesar eat that he waxes so great?"

It's amazing but true. The Food and Drug Administration wants to force down the standards on white bread. Washington observers say, "Next thing we know Stalin will be announcing his conversion to Christianity."

Congress passed the Pure Food and Drug Act to protect the public from inferior products. The Pure Food and Drug Administration enforces the Act. Acting in this capacity, great good has been done. But the bureau was never given policy-making powers.

Here's the proposed order: White bread with a wheat germ content of more than 1.5% can no longer be called white bread, even though it is white.

Here's the background: The commercial baking business is practically the only mass food industry not almost totally monopolized by 3 or 4 combines, but a few huge bakery corporations are trying to change this.

However, almost every town has an independent baker who survives bone-crushing competition because he puts out a better bread than the baking combines. The amount of wheat germ in the flour is a big factor. However, if by bureaucratic edict no one could bake a better loaf of bread, it's easy to see that national monopoly in the baking industry would result.

©National Federation of Independent Business

Paul Dunbar, commissioner of the Administration, has received scores of protests on this bureaucratic move to force on the public a poorer quality bread.

The Senate Small Business Committee, headed by Sen. John Sparkman, may launch an investigation to ascertain why a bureau is trying to help the would-be bread monopoly; by what legal right the bureau attempts this action.

In fact, this bureaucratic kicking around of Congressional prerogatives and wishes is making many persons indignant, especially when so many of these subversions of bureau authority directly aid huge financial interests.

As reported last week, the sale of a government industrial alcohol plant in Kansas City for a small amount to Schenley during a war period, after Sen. Johnson, Chairman of the Preparedness Sub-Committee, had been assured the sale was stopped, is leading many Congressmen to stop and think where the nation "founded for the people, with the people, and of the people" has drifted. Angry Congressmen, supported by independent businessmen and other citizens, could change this trend. This thought is growing: "What will we gain to fight an obnoxious foreign system if we permit an obnoxious system to take root at home?"

The question has been asked, "What will be the effect of the government action in taking over all rubber supplies on tire dealers and tire users?"

This question is involved; many factors have to be weighed; more facts must be brought to light, before a sound answer can be drawn. In the next week or two this column will bring you the answer.
