Timberwolves Nail Down Tourney Try

Mill City's Timberwolves gained a try at the coming Marion county "B" league tourney Tuesday as they grabbed a 49-48 overtime win over the Chemawa Indians in a special playoff game.

Denny Marttala's basket in the overtime provided the Wolves with the winning score. Tally at the end of regular time was 45-45, Mill City staged a stirring rally to come from behind after the Indians had led at the half, 25-15.

Verl Moberg paced the Timberwolves with 14 points and Reggie Wells and Luie Belgard each hit 13 for Chemawa.

The Marion B meet opens tonight on the neutral Stayton floor. Jefferson meets Gates in the opening game and Gervais and Mill City clash in the nightcap.

Gates Noses Out Jefferson Lions

Gates put the big axe to the tree of Jefferson's league hopes when on Friday they nosed out in the final game of the season Jefferson's Lions with a score of 46 to 45.

This loss tallied Jefferson with a record of 12 and 4, one full game behind Sublimity. Marlin Cole was the big scorer for Gates, racking up 23. Jefferson Lion Lee Cameron got 15.

The Lions scored three points in the final minutes of play in a futile struggle to catch up.

In a hot battle in the opener, the Jefferson JV's won 33 to 31 in two overtimes.

Gates (46) F (45) Jefferson
Cole (23) F (15) Cameron
Cline (6) F (2) Wattenbarger
Carey (6) C (10) Marlatt

Coates (5) G (4) Ritt

Reserves scoring: Jefferson—Brown 8.

ELKHORN

By ELSIE MYERS

Mehama Farmers Union met in regular session Friday evening with President Ike Myers presiding. Ben Newell of the county extension service was present and told of the services available to the farmers through their office. He also showed colored slides taken on various farms in Marion county during field day trips. Mr. Burns of the Soil Conservation office was also present and made a few remarks in regard to their services.

Those from the Mehama local of the Farmers Union attending the state convention in Woodburn Wednesday were C. J. Blum, Bob Draper and Mr. and Mrs. Ike Myers.

Reports were heard from C. J. Blum, delegate to the insurance meeting of the State Farmers Union convention held in Woodburn Feb. 21, 22, 23 and from Bob Draper, general delegate to the convention.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the ladies of the organization.

Steve Myers of Oswego has been spending several days on his place in Elkhorn. He was joined Sunday by Mrs. Myers and Miss Beulah Shope of Portland.

Mrs. Mollie Dark and her son, Durwood, narrowly escaped serious injury when returning home from Mehama Thursday. Due to a faulty steering gear the car left the highway and plunged down a 60-foot embankment coming to rest in the shallow water of the river. Had the car proceeded four or five feet further it would have plunged into a depth of 10 feet of water.

Mrs. Ike Myers returned Sunday last from southern California where she had spent the past two months. She spent the greater part of the time in Long Beach but also visited with relatives and friends in Los Angeles, Santa Monica and Anaheim.

DETROIT

By MRS. OPAL WHITE

A number of new students have been enrolled at the Detroit grade school in the past month. Among those coming from out of the state were the three Manasco children who were enrolled in the school the first part of the year and who left to go to Arkansas about Thanksgiving time. The Watts children: Donna, 5th grade, and Richard, 1st grade, from Idaho and Dolores and Michael, 8th grade. Others enrolling were Barbara Raymond, 3rd grade from St. Paul; Dean Mott, Salem; William Utery, 7th grade, Albany, and Andrew Hyman, 7th grade, from Foster and David Seaborn.

The Detroit grade school have formed an intermural softball league which includes six teams from the grade school, with such appropriate names as Hot Shots, Grizzlies, etc. There will be a track meet the first part of May in which the Detroit grade school will participate, to be held at Mill City.

Russell Hoyt, sixth grade teacher was absent from school from Monday through Wednesday of last week due to a bad cold which may have been flu.

Carolyn Marline Cannon has been ill for the past five days with a very bad cold.

Mrs. Lloyd Leach left school on Wednesday afternoon of last week for Seattle where she attended the funeral of Mr. Leach's father there. Mrs. Cokenour substituted in the fourth grade during her absence.

Joe Wright who has been ill for a couple of weeks was taken to the Salem Memorial hospital on Wednesday of last week where he has been under observation.

Mrs. Bunnell of the Marion county health association and Mrs. Davis, school nurse will conduct a meeting for the Marion county health committee in this community on Tuesday afternoon of this week. Pictures will be shown demonstrating the work of the committee and general discussion of the duties of the members will be engaged in also. A further report of the meeting will appear in next week's Enterprise.

The Detroit high school first string team and subs were guests on Saturday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Overholser and Mr. and Mrs. Otis White who accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Smith of Mongold, transported the high school boys to Eugene where they enjoyed the State College Rooks and the Oregon Frosh in a preliminary game to the main event as well as the very fast moving main event, the Oregon and U. of Washington teams in a furious game. Boys, who were guests of the Overholser and Whites, were David Bray, Leonard Overholser, Roger and Stan Timms, Bob Layman, Dick Woodward, Raymond Wallace, James White, Bill Palmer and Coach Stanley Whipple. Marilyn Overholser also accompanied her parents. David Bray and Bob Layman were overnight guests of the Overholser's following the game.

Gates Pucksters Warm Mill City

In spite of the snowing and cold outside Sunday, Richard's Tavern of Gates generated so much heat that the tempo of the shuffleboard contest overwhelmed the Mill City Tavern pucksters in the final meeting of the season.

Gates really turned things upside down and started out on a new tack when they tossed Mill City for a loss by a score of 211 for Gates and 194 for Mill City.

Mill City recruited Martha Stine of Albany, a former Mill City resident, for their side, but nevertheless Gates plagued Mill City by winning.

Alice Hoeye and Johnny Gilworth displayed their usual talent and secured top score for Mill City of 37 points. Martha Stine and George Stewart came in second high for Mill City with 30 points. Third highest for the losers were Marjie Jose and Betty Christensen with a 27 tally.

The teams of Betty Hayward-Lou Mulligan and Elton Brown-Gene Gibson tied for high for Gates each having a score of 31. Second high for
