Gerald Vintons Observe Their 10th Anniversary

The Gerald Vintons and their guests observed the Vintons' 10th wedding anniversary Sunday with an elaborate dinner in the Vinton home in Mill City.

The Vintons were joined in wedlock on Washington's birthday 10 years ago in Vancouver, Wash. Very soon after their marriage, they came to Mill City and have lived here since. Mr. Vinton is employed at the Freres & Frank Lumber mill near Mill City.

Especially proud on this special occasion was Mrs. Vinton because her household sported a new and fancy set of Delmar dishes in honor of the memorable day.

Guests for the anniversary dinner of the Vintons were Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Anderson and family of Vancouver, Wash. and Mr. and Mrs. A. Houtz of Salem. Mrs. Anderson and Mrs. Houtz are sisters of Mrs. Vinton.

Mrs. Russell Kelly was a visitor. During the meeting plans were made to hold a box social and square dance at the Legion hall on Saturday, April 7th.

Martha Bowes Entertains Famous Euchre Club

Mrs. Martha Bowes entertained Saturday afternoon in her home in Gates members of the Gates Birthday club, undoubtedly the only euchre club still in existence.

This club was organized some 50 years ago when euchre was as popular as canasta is today.

Luncheon was served by the hostess, Mrs. Bowes at one o'clock. The remainder of the afternoon cards were in play at four tables.

High score was held by Mrs. Gwen Schaefer; second, Mrs. Riley Champ. Mrs. Lula Collins received consolation prize and Mrs. Oscar Osterhout was presented the visitor's prize.

Others attending were Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Gerald Heath, Mrs. Edmund Davis, Mrs. Robert Levon, Mrs. Floyd Bassett of Lyons, Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Blanch Dean and Mrs. Walter Brisbin.

Dr. Wm. L. Teutsch has been confined to his home because of an attack of the flu and unable to be in his offices this week. He expects to be up and around soon, however.
