

GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP

Your Gates correspondent has failed to accumulate much news this week, but she has two of the most beautiful "shiners" one would wish to see. She is having a difficult time to convince her friends that the black eyes are not the result of a beating received at the hands of her husband, rather than from a fall when she tripped over "Bouncer", in the dark and landed flat on her "proboscis".

Among Gates folks attending the silver tea and art display, given by the Mill City Womens' club, last Friday afternoon were Mrs. Edward Chance, Mrs. Ted Stiff, Mrs. Walter Thomas, Mrs. Edmund Davis, Mrs. Harry Keiser, Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Laura Joaquin, Mrs. Glen Hearing and Mrs. Albert Millsap.

Parents of the local Cub Scouts and others interested in scouting are invited to attend a no-host dinner, Saturday, March 3, at 6:30 p.m., in the recreation rooms of the high school. Parents of the Cubs are especially urged to attend.

The ham dinner given by the Gates Woman's club Sunday was a grand success, in spite of the snow, in every respect except from a financial standpoint. The dinner was praised by all those present and more than a hundred were served, however, only a small profit was realized for the Community club house building fund.

Mr. and Mrs. Dave Barnhardt returned the last of the week from Pasco, Wash., where they had spent several days at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Barnhardt and his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barnhardt.

A birthday dinner complimenting Bob Oliver was given by his wife, Mrs. Oliver, Sunday afternoon at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Oliver. Miss Jean Oliver from Salem, Bill Oliver and Miss Gaylean Clark from Corvallis joined Mr. and Mrs. Bob Oliver and Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Oliver and family for the occasion.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Schissler and Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rush, from Salem were weekend guests in the Clarence Rush home.

Mrs. Velma Carey and son, Jimmy, and Mr. and Mrs. Don Carey, and son, Jon, of Stayton spent Sunday in Portland at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Carey.

Several Gates residents are sporting new cars bought in the past two weeks, among them Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Klutke, Mr. and Mrs. G. Scamhorn and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Oliver.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wilson and two sons of Roseburg were recent weekend guests at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wilson. Mrs. Harold Wilson and daughter, Mrs. Donald Carey, entertained at dinner complimenting Donald Carey on the occasion of his birthday anniversary at the Wilson home. Mrs. Velma Carey and son, Jimmy, were also present.

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Joaquin over Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. William Cooper and two sons, of Lakeview, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cooper of Ashland and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cooper and baby from Medford.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge and daughter, Carolyn, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Bob Kelle and children spent Saturday and Sunday at the coast.

Mrs. Burrell Cole and Glen Henness were guests of honor at a birthday dinner, given by Mrs. Clarence Rush, Saturday evening at the Cole home. Places were laid for the honored guests, Mrs. Cole and Mr. Henness, Burrell Cole, Mrs. Minnie Everton, Mrs. Henness, and son, Earl, Miss Lorena Devine and Marlin Cole.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Spaniol of Stayton were Sunday visitors at the home of her son and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Mielke.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Varcoe were Portland-visitors at the home of her mother, Mrs. Rose Stewart over Sunday.

Members of the Gates Woman's club met in the recreation rooms of the high school, Thursday afternoon of last week in social session. A dessert luncheon was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Glenn Gordon and Mrs. Laura Joaquin. Following the luncheon hour the class in textile painting, under the direction of Mrs. Kay McCarty was held. Ladies present were Mrs. Harry Keiser, Mrs. Clarence Ball, Mrs. Dale Stubbs, Mrs. Glenn Hearing, Mrs. Lula Collins, Mrs. Burrell Cole, Mrs. W. R. Hutcherson, Mrs. Walter Thomas, Mrs. Elmer Klutke, Mrs. Albert Millsap, Mrs. Edward Chance and Mrs. McCarty.

A joint meeting of the local fire department, the Gates Chamber of Commerce and the school board was held the last of the week at the high school. Sixteen active firemen were elected from the volunteer group who will be under accident insurance. This group then chose, by ballot, from

Legion Auxiliary Votes Assistance For Herrons

The regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary was held Feb. 19 at the home of Mrs. Campbell Stewart, with Mrs. Frank Stovall co-hostess.

Members present were Mesdames John Muir, C. A. Bruder, Al Stahlman, Arthur Chase, Norman Jensen, Albert Toman, Jack Colburn, J. T. King and the hostesses. Mrs. Geo. Veteto was a guest.

During the business meeting it was voted to donate $10.00 to the Victor Herron family who recently lost their household belongings in an apartment fire.

Scout Leaders Attend 30th Boy Scout Dinner

The Silver Beavers, highest award in adult scouting was given to Hollis Smith, Dallas, E. P. Opplinger, Independence, and Floyd K. Bowers of Salem, at the thirtieth annual dinner of the Cascade Area Council of the Boy Scouts of America, Thursday night at the Izaak Walton League club house on Cottage and Bellevue streets in Salem.

Attending, to represent the Idanha-Detroit-Mongold troop, were committeemen Henry Hiebert and Sol Tucker, Mrs. Tucker, assistant Scoutmaster A. R. Snyder and Mrs. Snyder.

James T. Brand, justice of Oregon Supreme Court, gave a very interesting address contrasting Boy Scouts of America to the Youth Movement of Germany during World War I.

Detroit Juniors and Seniors Visit Salem

The American history class of the Detroit high school consisting of juniors and seniors had a full day in Salem on Friday of last week where they visited the state legislature in the morning, in the afternoon they went out to the Fairview home and later visited the state capitol building and the library.

They were accompanied by Stanley Whipple and Miss Inazuko. They met the freshmen and sophomores of the high school as well as a number of the seventh and eighth graders at the Oregon State School for the Deaf in the evening where they played their last conference game of the season with a victory over OSD.

among their number, W. D. Grines to serve as fire chief. They also discussed means of securing additional fire hose.

Floyd Volkel was elected to serve for a term of two years as school director to complete the term of Lt. Gale Carey, former director who reported for army duty, Feb. 1.

travel later to Monmouth to compete in the district tournament. The Junior class of M.C.H.S. gained a new male member, Shelby Umphress who hails from Corvallis. As Mr. Rugh said, "There are a number of Mill City people in Corvallis at the present time so it isn't at all strange that they send us one of their citizens." Hi, Shell!

Seems as though the sun took a turn at peeking out on Mill City between snow flurries this past week, which brought out an array of tennis racquets on the high school court. Doggone these Romeos that get their Loving in the Evening Time always get their wish and we are burdened with the day-time dreary clouds. Well maybe Spring will arrive in about a couple of weeks being that March came in like a lion.

Remember Saturday night at the fire hall. See you there.

rounding area will attract more and more industry and people as industry seeks better living conditions for its employees in order to improve labor relations.

"This area is ideally situated for such a development, provided, we, of this area co-operate to bring about this result."

"When this development comes, it will bring untold wealth and permanent security to the North Santiam communities."

While in law college Sorensen was elected by the membership of his professional fraternity, as exchequer. He is now service officer of the Mill City American Legion Post No. 159, and has membership in the Legion Post No. 140 of Lyle, Wash.

In his acceptance speech, after results of the election conducted by the board of directors was revealed, Sorensen stated, "I earnestly ask you whole-hearted co-operation and hope that I can do a good job as president."

Sorensen went on to say, "All indications point to a rousing and successful Mill City Chamber of Commerce." Bob Veness, hard working retiring chamber president, expressed his sincere best wishes to Sorensen in his new duties.

MILL CITY

The Three Links benefit card party Saturday, February 24, in the Rebekah hall made $39.50 in support of the Santiam Memorial hospital. Cherry pie, ice cream and coffee were the refreshments served the card players. Mabel Veteto was chairman of the card party.
