

Twin Efficiency

Prue and Polly Ward, lovely dancing twins of the Broadway hit, "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes," demonstrate new carpet sweeping features—latest developments of a Brooklyn, N.Y., vacuum cleaner company. Prue, left, shows how a new nozzle operates as a rug attachment for the Lewyt vacuum cleaner. Sister Polly simply detached the hose and uses it as a carpet sweeper.

The new "101" nozzle has many advantages. As a carpet sweeper it is light, easy to store and so low-slung it will go under the lowest furniture and radiators. Home makers like the self-cleaning brush which adjusts its own height to that of the rug.

Best of all, perhaps, Polly never has to empty the carpet sweeper. When she attaches it to her Lewyt, suction draws the dust and litter into the handy Speed-Sac, a disposable container inside the dust bowl.

IDANHA

By REBA SNYDER

The Weatherman pulled the wrong string and as a result we have a good three feet of snow and still at it. So glad this is March instead of November. As the school bus was late Monday morning, many pupils tired of waiting and returned home. No school Tuesday.

Many are ill this week. Mr. Walter Reynolds had a heart attack. Mrs. Klone, Mrs. John Ray, Mrs. Orin Perkins, Eva New, Mrs. Orval Lady, and Gary Roberts have had the flu. Leonard Snyder the measles and Myrtle Geston has had a quency throat.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Palmerton arrived home Tuesday evening after a five week trip to the east coast.

More than 300 pounds of clothing were rolled in the Engineer's building at the CCC camp Wednesday afternoon by the members of the North Santiam Willing Workers club, in preparation for the Salvation Army truck. Mrs. John Bowers was hostess to the twelve members present. First March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. B. Gordon.

The American Legion and Auxiliary met Tuesday night in the home room at the high school for a no-host dinner and an evening of "Cootie". About 30 members were present and Bernadine Stoll and Mildred Oliver won prizes.

For the first time the mail is being carried to Marion Forks and the Fish hatchery. Friday being the first day only three boxes were serviced but all those living above the city limits to the hatchery are eligible to receive their mail on the route. Gerald Pittam received the contract for $1120.12 annually 'til 1954. The mail will go three days weekly from now til June 16 and from then til September 15 daily except Sundays.

Last week Frank New bought into the Ketchum logging company. At present they are logging at the clearing for the new road near Detroit, which will last about 30 days.

GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP

Verily, March came in here like a lion. It has provided a sample of most every kind of weather since the first day. Sunshine, rain, sleet, snow, hail and high winds. Good weather to enjoy your own warm fireside and stay at home. That's what most Gates folk have done for the past week, however it makes hard pickings for a correspondent.

Gilbert Weathers, Fred Butler and Walter Brijshin braved the storm last Thursday night and drove to Sisters, representing the Gates Chamber of Commerce at a meeting of the Sisters chamber.

A number of folk here are on the sick list or are just recovering from the flu. Among those confined to their homes for the week were Mrs. Joe Joaquin, Mrs. Floyd Volkel, Mrs. Jesse Haywood, both Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lord, W. R. Hutcheson and T. Henness, who is reported to be much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Rebhan of Dallas were Saturday visitors at the home of Mrs. Rebhan's son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison.

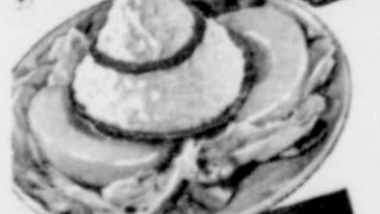

Gerald Garrison and Richard Mitchell were weekend guests in Portland at the home of Mitchell's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchell.

Louise Haun, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haun was brought home from Portland, where she had been hospitalized for several weeks.

Louise is reported to have made some recovery from rheumatic fever, but is still required to remain in bed. A new hospital bed has been secured for her which makes her confinement less irksome.

R. L. Stafford visited at the home of his brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Lang Stafford this week.

On a Luxury Flight to Europe

In the top photo all passengers relax in deep pile lounge seats, or can go below to the cocktail lounge while flying direct from New York to London or Paris. On the overnight flights to either capital, delicious meals and complimentary cocktails are served enroute at no additional cost. Winter rates, now in effect, offer a substantial saving. Thousands of people wait for the first couple of months of any year to visit Paris, London or other European cities. The photo shows a capacity crowd on a Pan American World Airways "Strato" Clipper enroute direct to Paris, while the lower photo shows how berths are made up. A crew of nine men and girls fly the clipper and serve the passengers. This flight which leaves New York in the late afternoon and arrives in London or Paris the next morning, represents the last word in airborne luxury.

baby boy from Roseburg were over Sunday guests at the home of Mrs. Gosnell's mother, Mrs. Laura Joaquin.

Mr. and Mrs. Chris Knutson, accompanied by Mrs. Mary Ederston were Salem visitors Tuesday of last week.

Mrs. Glenn Gordon and Mrs. Albert Millsap drove to Stayton last Thursday evening, where Mrs. Gordon sang with the Santiam Choral club.

Marshall Lake and bride of Portland were weekend guests at the home of his father, Russell Lake. They also visited his grandmother, Mrs. Lillie Lake and his great grandfather, L. T. Henness.

Numerous guests have come and gone at the home of L. T. Henness and his daughter, Mrs. Lillie Lake the past week. Mrs. Fred Ratzburg of Salem spent a week with her father and sister, returning to her home Sunday of last week in company with Miss Ollie Crab and Mrs. Bessie Luckenbill, both of Salem, Sunday callers at the Henness-Lake home.

Mrs. Ellis Hill from Mill City was over the weekend guest of Mrs. Lake. Miss Jackie Wood of Mill City was Sunday dinner guests of Joan Lake at her home.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Nydigger and son of Lyons spent the evening at the L. T. Henness home last week.

G. R. Wishon stopped at the R. C. Lake home over the weekend on his return from the oil fields of Texas. Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Weathers and daughter were also guests at the Lake home.

LYONS

By EVA BRESSLER

Due to weather conditions the first aid class that was to begin Monday evening, March 5th, has been postponed until Monday evening, March 12th. Beginning at seven o'clock there will be three-hour classes for a period of six weeks. Anyone wishing to register, contact Mrs. Alex Bodker at the telephone office.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Huffman were her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Ed Strom of Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Rammie Martell and son, Timothy, moved to Cutler City Sunday, where he will be employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Searcy of Newberg have moved into the Claire Humphries house, recently vacated by the Jack Christensen family.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jungwirth, Dickie and Gayle with her mother, Mrs. Grant Murphy of Salem were Sunday visitors in Portland.

Several of the young people from Lyons went to Salem Sunday afternoon. They attended the Young People's youth rally meeting at the Jason Lee Methodist church. They reported seeing a beautiful Easter pageant. Those going were Janice and Janet Huffman, of Lyons, Joyce Hargreaves of Jordan, Sheldon Titus and Jess Booth of Stayton.

Mill City Lodge No. 144, I.O.O.F. meets every Friday night. Visiting brothers welcome.
