MEHAMA

By JEAN ROBERTS

The unexpected snow-storm, climaxing an unusually mild winter disrupted the life of this community.

Denim jeans and rubber boots replaced all other wearing apparel. Traffic slackened with the exception of a few jeeps, and cars with chains. Several families mounted sawdust tires to safeguard their driving in the slippery snow. Business decreased as people stayed near home and a fire.

Mari-Linn school bus stalled on the Keith Phillips hill one morning and all the youngsters got out and walked.

An employee of the tire shop, unable to depend on automotive transportation, resorted to a bicycle to get to work.

A few hardy souls, however, welcomed the snow as ideal for hunting cats. Joe Challender, accompanied by three hounds, roamed the hills every day, but reported little success.

Frank Crowther, another hunter did not boast of a varmint he bagged—a civet cat under an outbuilding!

Mr. and Mrs. Erill Wilson made a business trip to California last week, and report sunshine in the Golden state. They returned to a snowy Oregon to find a drain pipe overflowing and a flooded kitchen and basement.

Ladies Aid and Women's club were postponed last week due to weather. Ladies Aid will meet Thursday, March 22, at the home of Mrs. Ray Roberts for an all-day meeting. Women's club will be held March 21 at the hall.

The community church is welcoming donations of clothing for those in war-torn Korea. Contributions can be left in the church basement. Bedding is also to be sent.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Stout are proudly proclaiming a grand-daughter. The baby is a new arrival in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stout.

Ivan Darby, recently arriving home from The Dalles, is planning to return, as a brother is confined in a hospital there.

Mill City Lodge No. 144, I.O.O.F. meets every Friday night. Visiting brothers welcome.
