By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP

Easter Sunday was a lovely day in Gates — warm, with only a short shower in the evening—just enough to insure six more weeks of rain. However the Easter bunny—with his, or her many brightly colored eggs—made it a happy day for the youngsters. The grownups enjoyed breakfasts and dinners with friends and relatives. Many attended services in the churches.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush drove to Salem to have breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ritchie.

The annual Easter morning breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap was attended by members of their family, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Klecker and family of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Meinert and sons of Mill City and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Millsap and family of Portland, who were also over night guests.

Mrs. Lillie Lake and her father, L. T. Hennes, had as their dinner guests Mrs. Jennie Kitcherson, R. C. Lake and son, Arthur.

Mr. and Mrs. Marshall Lake, accompanied by Truman Tibbets, spent the weekend in Portland. Marshall has received orders to report for service in the armed forces April 2. He will report at Eugene before going to Fort Lewis.

Mrs. Minnie Everton received two happy surprises Saturday—the return of her grandson, Seaman Thurlo Cole, from Korea in the afternoon and when Mrs. Clarence Rush and Mrs. Glen Hennes honored her at her daughter's home at dinner in the evening on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. Places were set for the honored guest, Mrs. Everton; Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Cole, their sons, Thurlo and Marlin; Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush; and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hennes.

Thurlo Cole arrived in Salem Saturday morning where he was greeted by his parents. Cole has seen active service in Korea and Japan for the past nine months. His outfit took the first division of Marines to Korea and brought them home. Cole is wearing two stars, one for invasion and one for evacuation.

Mrs. Blanche Dean, who was taken to the Salem Memorial hospital a week ago for minor surgery, is reported as making a satisfactory recovery. Mrs. Mary Eaglestrom and Mrs. Laura Joaquin accompanied Mrs. Martha Bowes and her son, Joseph, to Salem on a visit with Mrs. Dean on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Tex Allen left Saturday for a week's vacation in Seattle and Tacoma, Wash. Allen is an engineer with the CBI.
