

Gates High Cagers Hear Stackhouse

Gates — A banquet, honoring the Gates high school basketball lettermen for their out-standing record this season and the lettermen's fathers was held in the recreation rooms of the high school Tuesday evening of last week.

Principal Don Miley, acting as toastmaster, opened the after-dinner festivities by expressing the thanks of those present to the ladies who sponsored and served the delicious turkey dinner, Mrs. Velma Carey, Mrs. Glen Henness, Mrs. Clarence Rush, Mrs. Ernest Wriglesworth, Mrs. Floyd Cline, Mrs. Burrell Cole and Mrs. Chester Stackhouse of Salem who assisted.

Marlin Cole, captain of the Gates team, presented Howard Means, Gates coach, with a gold trophy, from the 50-51 lettermen, in appreciation of his out-standing assistance to and personal interest in this year's team.

The coach awarded letters to the following members of the Pirate squad that garnered second place in the Marion county "B" league: Jimmy Carey, Bob Lee, Albert Zeibert, seniors; Marlin Cole, Earle Henness, Wimpy Critea and Jack Oliver, juniors; Athol Cline and Mervin Haun, freshmen.

Chester Stackhouse, director of athletics at Willamette university, was introduced by Don Miley as the speaker of the evening. Stackhouse, in his remarks emphasized the necessity that young men consider their futures and set their goals now, in

Science Cuts A Rug

New man-made carpet fibers, the result of sixteen years of research, are bringing better styled, lower priced rugs and carpets to American homemakers. New carpet styles containing a blend of the specially developed carpet rayon, and wool are being shown for the first time during the Carpet Fashion Opening this spring.

Photo shows: The distinctive sculpture of Rondelle (foreground) and the informality of Cordalon (left) framed by the embossed beauty of Chateau-laine. These blends feature the clean new colors, long wear, and lower prices that carpet rayon has brought to the newest floorcovering styles.

Fire which started about 7 o'clock on Saturday morning destroyed the brooder house and about 400 ten-day-old chicks belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Golden of Detroit. The brooder house was equipped with a new kerosene brooder. The loss not only included the chickens and brooder but also a supply of feed which was stored in the building. The fire would also have taken the Golden home had not the fire department arrived to keep the flames under control. Mrs. Golden was at home alone except for her small son when the fire broke out.

Parent-Teacher meeting will be held on Thursday evening of this week at the Grade school building beginning at 8 o'clock. An interesting program has been prepared which will be a panel discussion of the topic "Are we awake to teen-age recreation needs—some things this community can do." This panel will include one high school boy and one high school girl, one man-teacher and one lady teacher as well as a father and mother. S. T. Moore will act as moderator. A nominating committee has been appointed which will report at this meeting. Mrs. Joan Davis, county school nurse will show a movie as well as give a short talk explaining the hearing tests to be given in the future in the school here. Members of the nominating committee for the coming election were Mrs. Margaret Rasnick, Mrs. Warren Stoll, Mrs. H. C. Payne and Mrs. Reba Snyder.
