SCHOOL DISTRICT No. 21-J

DETROIT

By MRS. OPAL WHITE

The North Santiam Chamber of Commerce, which is a newly organized body for the promotion of business in the Canyon holds an executive board meeting in Mehama, Women's club building on Wednesday at 8. The North Santiam Chamber of Commerce includes communities from Mehama to Idanha, or Marion Forks. Nolan Rasnick is the member from this community. John Cannon, Ray Johnson and Len Davis have also been taking an active part in this organization.

Eva Lou New, winner in the spelling contest from Detroit will go to Stayton on Wednesday evening at 7:30 where she will defend her crown in the Stayton high school Auditorium.

The grade school enrollment has increased to 197 pupils. This is a large increase over the enrollment of two months ago.

On April 19 the eighth grade class, under the direction of Mrs. John Ray, will present a series of three, one act plays in the gymnasium. The public is invited.

At an assembly held in the grade school gymnasium on Friday March 30 the student body were presented with a beautiful silk flag complete with standard by Russell Hoyt, on behalf of the American Legion who were the donors of the gift. The flag was accepted by Fred Davis who is president of the student body.

Spelling awards were presented at that meeting to Eva Lou New, Fred Davis and Edgar Manasco.

Mr. Hoyt, sixth grade teacher, presented the student patrol citations to about 20 student patrol members, who are drawn from the sixth, seventh and eighth grades.

Mrs. Eve Tarpley, who is assistant cook at the grade school cafeteria, is leaving for Portland for business reasons about April 15th. As yet no assistant has been secured for the vacancy.

boy from Tronjeim, Norway, read excerpts from his letters. Sharon has corresponded since January with a young man in Salsburg, Austria.

The program ended with a panel discussion. S. T. Moore was moderator. Discussed was the topic, "Are we awake to teen-age recreation needs, some things this community can do."

On the panel were two parents Mrs. Brad Humphrey and Ed Davis, both of Mongold; two teachers, Stanley Whipple and Mrs. Margaret Rasnick; and two high school students, John Davis and Marlene White.

The discussion provided such questions as "What is recreation?" "How do teen-age recreation needs differ from those of other age groups?" "Should teen-age recreation be centered more in the home or in outside community affairs?" "If the school during the week nights what can the looks after the teen-age recreation community do for the rest of the week?"

The program over, Mr. Boyer presented the gavel to Mrs. H. C. Payne. She will fill his unexpired term for the remainder of the year. Mr. Boyer previously tendered his resignation as he is being transferred to Lookout Point and leaves the first week in April.

Refreshments were served by the sixth grade mothers, Mrs. Lloyd Ketchum, Mrs. Reba Snyder and Mrs. Brad Humphrey.

The hobby show on display in the library proved a feature attraction. This was not only the display which was held in the grade school a week or so ago but also included many adult entries. Mrs. Helwig of Mongold exhibited ceramics and fabric paintings. The American Legion Auxiliary child welfare division displayed its unique needlework.
