

John Cannon Leaves Detroit Activity

Detroit—John Cannon, who has been principal of Detroit grade school for the past year, has accepted a position as principal of the grade school in Stayton. Mr. Cannon completed his elementary teacher's training at Monmouth in 1940. He received his bachelor of science degree from the University of Oregon in 1947 and took one year of graduate work at Oregon State college.

Mr. Cannon saw five and one-half years of service during the second World war which included 43 months of overseas service in the Pacific theatre. He, at present, is a first lieutenant of the National Guard, Company B of the 162nd Infantry.

Mr. Cannon's co-operation and friendliness have made him a host of friends in the Detroit and Idanha communities. He has been active in the North Santiam Chamber of Commerce, the Canyon Aid and the local Legion post.

Mehama Farmers Union See Films

Elkhorn — Mehama local of the Farmers Union met in regular session Friday. There was a good attendance. Visitors included Mr. and Mrs. Pat Gohrman and Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Martin of Stayton and Mrs. Mae Patton of Mehama.

The regular form of business was carried out, followed by the showing of two pictures, one on safety driving and the other on an Alcan highway trip.

An invitation to a pie social on April 27th, sponsored by the Sublimity local was extended the local unit. April 27 being social night for Mehama, the local postponed their local meeting for that night. All who can do so will join Sublimity.

soon. Gerald purchased his lot from Mr. and Mrs. Harry Edwards of Salem, formerly of Gates.

Mrs. Norman Garrison and Miss June Mitchell attended a shower in Lyons Sunday at the home of Mrs. George Berry.

Guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Don Gessner were their son, William Boaz, of Portland, Mrs. Margaret Willis and Mrs. Dora Brooke, both of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haun and daughter, Louise, Gates.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mitchell of North Richland, Washington, recently of Gates, are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Lois June Mitchell, to Gerald Garrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison, of Gates. The wedding will be an event of May fifth.

Recent house guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Clise were Mr. and Mrs. Arthur O'Hara of Eugene, Mr. and Mrs. E.V. Moody, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Inman and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Inman from Los Angeles. Mr. and Mrs. Moody were enroute to Washington.

Mrs. Elmer Cooper and granddaughter, Connie, left the middle of the week for a visit with relatives in Ashland. Mrs. Cooper plans having dental work done while there.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Oliver, Jack, Donalee, and Jean Oliver and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Oliver and Sheryl enjoyed a picnic at Avery park in Corvallis. They were joined by Bill Oliver and Gaylean Clark to help celebrate the birthdays of granddad and granddaughter.

E. W. Bray and son, David, were in North Bend the latter part of the week on business. Mr. Bray will begin at once the operation of his new business. Mrs. Bray and the boys, Donald and David, will remain in Detroit until the close of school.

John Latane Jr. of Salem will run the Detroit shop formerly managed by Mr. Bray.

Winnie Booth, sister of Mrs. Ray Johnson of Detroit, leaves for San Francisco Monday. She plans having an operation on her hip soon. She will enter the Merritt hospital in Oakland for about ten days, after which she will be with her sister near there.

Otis White and John Cannon of Detroit attended a meeting of the school principals of the state in Salem on Monday evening. This meeting was presided over by county superintendent of schools Mrs. Booth and was for the purpose of explaining requirements for school reports for this year under the new rulings.

Frank Crowell has returned from the Bend hospital where he was treated for virus pneumonia during last week. He is taking over his duties at the service station again.

Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Wallace have sold their business to Herman. Mr. Wallace has had charge of the garbage disposal here for several years.

There are three new enrollments at the grade school already this week, Edward Bishop from Scio, Muriel and Judith Powell from New Mexico.

The newly organized North Santiam Chamber of Commerce will have its first public meeting Wednesday evening at the Detroit high school at 8 p.m. for the purpose of explaining to the general public the aims and purposes of the canyon-wide chamber of commerce. Anyone interested may attend the Wednesday meeting. A meeting is slated on the first Wednesday in May of the board of directors of the North Santiam Chamber of Commerce. Detroiters Fishing season welcomed by many brought discomfort to Mrs. Gladys Cowdry, who suffered a broken ankle on opening day. Struggling safely through rocks and brush along the river, the bone was broken while crossing a clearing on the way home.

Ladies Aid met last week at the home of Mrs. Jennie Moe with a large attendance. The white elephant sale and dinner was discussed.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Banks who live in the apartment above Golliet's plan moving into the Howard Ross home when the Ross family moves to its remodeled new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Molnar of Detroit, Mich., arrived in Mehama Sunday. Mrs. Molnar is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Buckler. Arriving with them was a blond cocker spaniel pup which replaces the Buckler pet accidentally killed a few weeks ago.

A reception honoring the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Taylor was held in the club house Sunday. In a hall decorated with cherry blossoms and white snapdragons, guests were received by Mr. and Mrs. Taylor and daughter, Mrs. Glen Tinney. Mrs. Gilbert Wagner was in charge of the guest book. Mrs. Ed Taylor and Mrs. Maude Zimmerman poured. Mrs. Mae Patton served cake.

Hostesses for the occasion were Mrs. Lillie Wolfkiel, Mrs. Margaret Phillips, Mrs. Blanche Wagner, and Mrs. Gilbert Wagner.

Mehama citizens living on Blair street are again protesting about dust caused by logging trucks and private vehicles which use this back street for a turn around to gain access to the state highway.

Last year, home owners petitioned the county court for street oiling but were told that the street was an "orphan street" and not under their jurisdiction.

Also under discussion is a foot bridge across the North Santiam to enable pedestrians to cross the river in safety. The present bridge, narrow and limited to one-way traffic for trucks, is not conducive to pedestrian use.

The benefit pie social sponsored Saturday night by the women's club was a monetary success. $92.50 was netted by the sale of pies and cash contributions. This sum goes into active in the canyon-wide chamber are Nolan Rasnick, Russell Hoyt, John Cannon and Len Davis.

The first baseball game of the season played on the Detroit high school diamond will be on Friday afternoon with Gates high school.

Friday was senior skip day for the seniors of Detroit high. They spent the day in Salem having pictures taken and having generally a good time. The seniors are Marilyn Lovelace, Frankie Payne, Virginia White, Marlene White and Coleen Hopson. Friday was also senior visitation day at the various schools and colleges. Marlene White and Coleen Hopson spent the weekend at the Oregon College of Education at Monmouth where they visited classes, skits, etc. Frankie Payne and Virginia White visited the Merritt Davis school in Salem for a check of requirements and costs. Frankie and Virginia returned home Friday evening with Mr. White, who transported the girls to Salem and Monmouth.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Briles and Mr. Briles' father received slight injuries when the jeep pick-up in which they were riding collided with a car driven by Ray Howard of Mehama near Mill City. The accident occurred about 10 p.m. Sunday night. Mrs. Briles had two bones broken in her right foot. Mr. Briles Sr., received a slight head injury and shock. The estimated damage to the jeep was five hundred dollars. The new Ford is nearly a total wreck, it is reported.

Mrs. Mildred Ray's eighth grade will present three one-act plays in the Detroit grade school gymnasium on Thursday evening beginning at 8 p.m. Parents and friends are invited (no charge) for an evening of fun and entertainment. The plays are entitled "Cousin Imogene's Dinner," "Brother Gridden's Visit," and "Aunt Emmy and the Monkey." These same plays will be given again for the grade school pupils on Friday afternoon.
