Gates Lucky Twelve Veer From Course

Gates Lucky Twelve veered from the regular plan of things and performed the honors of a pink and blue shower for Mrs. Doreen Fowler during their Thursday meeting at the Parkway trailer court near Gates. Taking on the added task of managing a party in honor of Mrs. Fowler was hostess Bertha Vanderhoff. The whole afternoon's events followed the idea of recognition to Mrs. Fowler. Word unscrambling games occupied the attention of the group assembled during the course of the afternoon's luncheon.

Gates Lucky Twelve and their guests for this special occasion were Jeannine Herzberg, Ruby Adamson, Edna McCreary, Tacy Long, Elsie Nolan, Rose Haywood, Jean Wilson, Mable Quarles, Marcella Peterson, Hazel Gildon, Lougenia Fowler, Dolores Herzberg, Mary Jones, Alice Nelson, Pat Sargent, and Edna Duvall. During the pinochle play following the activity of the baby shower and the luncheon, Marcella Peterson earned for herself high score for the day. Ruby Adamson flicked away the pinochle prize. Dolores Herzberg found herself entitled to the irksome second prize position.

Special hostess Bertha Vanderhoff served her guests a delicious graham cracker nut roll and coffee during the dessert luncheon for the day's session.

Legionnaires Stage Depression Party

The American Legion Post No. 159 of Mill City relaxed Thursday night during their social and recreational meeting in the Legion hall in Mill City.

When the juke box of the recently re-decorated hall refused further music, Mrs. Jack Colburn loaned her record player. Mrs. Don Peterson, in the latter part of the evening, entertained those present by playing on the piano several popular songs. Mrs. Ruth Stovall sang several of the numbers played.

Cards, singing and dancing furnished the major part of the evening's entertainment. A bountiful dutch-lunch was the source of refreshments for the group.

Those present for the depression times dress-up Legion social were Mr. and Mrs. Dave Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Enlow, Mr. and Mrs. Campbell Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stovall, Mr. and Mrs. John Muir, Mr. and Mrs. Don Peterson, Mrs. Ina Chase, Mrs. Kay Colburn, Mr. Elmer Barney and Mr. Glen V. Sorensen.
