Detroit Women Seek Doctor For Area

Detroit — The Detroit Womens' Civic club met in the home of Mrs. Mabel Parker Wednesday evening, May 2, Mrs. Little Helwig, presided following the installation of new officers.

The club voted $15. for the Brownie troops' use as they saw fit instead of the campships which were discussed at a previous meeting. It was decided that this course was more helpful and beneficial. Fifteen dollars was also voted for the local fire district.

The recent play given by the Salem Civic Players, grossed $54. The local Civic club received $21. after expenses.

Mrs. Mildred Ray, the new secretary, was instructed, after discussion on the subject, to write to the U. of O. Medical school at Portland for information on securing a doctor for this community. Dr. Wilcutt left in April for Texas. The club has as a project the securing for the area a doctor's services.

There was no regular program, since the guest speaker, Mrs. Louisa Crawford, Brownie program spokes-

Mill City Garden Club Flower Show Planned

Plans are now complete for the Mill City Garden club white elephant sale and flower display Tuesday, May 29, in the Mill City First Presbyterian church recreation hall at 2 p.m. Pie and coffee will be offered for sale throughout the afternoon.

Garden club officials indicated that this May 29 flower exhibit is not a regular flower show and anyone having flowers may show them. The Mill City Garden club wishes that all the local flowers be represented and under one roof for viewing by the public.

Any "white elephants" citizens wish picked up for the "elephant sale" will be, club officials state. "White elephants" donations will be taken care of by contacting Mrs. H. D. Pound.

June Mitchell Weds Gerald Garrison

The wedding of Miss Lois June Mitchell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul R. Mitchell, of North Richland, Washington, to Gerald Garrison, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison, was solemnized Saturday evening, May 5, at the First Presbyterian church in Mill City. Rev. David Ferguson performed the 8 p.m. double ring ceremony.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white slipper satin, designed with a deep yoke of lace, long sleeves and a court train. Her fingertip veil was held by a headdress of seed pearls and rhinestones. She carried a bouquet of white carnations with long white satin streamers.

Mrs. Don Sullivan, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her gown was of orchid satin with matching headdress. Her bouquet was yellow carnations with yellow streamers. Little Carlyn Meilke, delightful in a long frock of yellow organdy with matching headdress and carrying pink carnations, was junior attendant.

The bride's mother chose a navy blue gown with white accessories; the groom's mother a navy blue print with pink accessories. Both wore corsages of pink carnations.

Wedding music was furnished by Mrs. George Clise at the piano and Mrs. Glenn Gordon sang "Because" and "At Dawning".

A reception was held in the recreation rooms of the church following the ceremony. Mrs. Robert Oliver presided at the coffee urn; Mrs. David Barnhardt at the punch bowl; Miss Powelson and Mrs. Robinson served the cake. Miss Birdie Larson passed the guest book and Miss Barbara Haun was in charge of the gifts.

The newly-weds left for a short honeymoon trip to Seattle and upon their return will be at home in Gates.
