

ELKHORN

By ELSIE MYERS

The Elkhorn road was closed to travel most of the day Saturday, while a small bridge, near the Paul Clise place, was removed and a fill made.

Johnny Lambrecht and Ike Myers spent two days last week on a fishing trip on the Deschutes river. They report catching some fish, but that the water was too high for good fishing.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Bickett, Phyllis, Trena Sue and Alice were dinner guests Friday evening of Mr. and Mrs. Merwyn Knox of Fox Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Myers of Oswego spent some time Saturday at their Elkhorn home. They were callers at the home of their brother, Ike Myers. Sunday callers at the Myers home were Mr. and Mrs. Gay Moody and two children of Sublimity and Dr. Paul Wilson of Silverton.

The cake walk held by the Mehama Local of the Farmer's Union Tuesday was a great success and netted a good sum. The Stayton high school band furnished music and Harley Libby of Salem was master of ceremonies. Cake, sandwiches and coffee were also served by the ladies.

Mrs. Bill Bickett, Jackie and Mrs. W. A. Billington were Salem visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Carl Longnecker went to Silverton Friday where she assisted in the care of Mr. Longnecker's mother. She returned home Sunday.

Fox Valley

Mrs. Clyde Lewis and Mrs. Floyd Bassett left Monday morning by car for Klamath Falls. The two ladies are delegates for the local Rebekah lodge. Mrs. Lewis took her car also since they were taking the Mill City delegates.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnston attended the annual homecoming picnic at the Queener district school house, Sunday, May 20, south of Stayton where Mrs. Johnston attended school at Queener in the late 1890's. Sunday's meeting was enjoyed very much by many folks who were teachers or pupils in the little country school many years past and up to the time the district consolidated with the Stayton district.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Scheiwek were called to Salem late Saturday evening to get Mrs. Scheiwek's brother, Fred Gage, and her sister, Miss June Gage, of Portland. Fred Gage is in the army and stationed at Fort Lewis. Sunday the group went to Silver Creek Falls for a basket lunch. Later the Scheiweks took their guests to Portland.

Mrs. James Nye of Fox Valley is working at the Lyons Food store as part time clerk.

Sandra and Sheryl Forrest of Stayton were Monday evening visitors with Kathryn Johnston.

Mrs. Owens of Gates was a Fox Valley business caller Thursday evening.

The merchandise auction for the benefit of the Methodist church treasury will be held Saturday, May 26. Anyone having articles they will donate for the auction or having something they wish sold, should contact Mrs. Huber or Mrs. Alex Bodeker before Saturday.

GATES

Keith Henness, who was in training in the armed service, has received a discharge from the service because of an allergy. He returned to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Henness, last week.

Jackie Oliver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oliver, and two friends escaped serious injury Saturday night when his car left the road and overturned on the road between Lyons and Jordan. The car was badly damaged, but the three boys were only scratched and bruised. It is reported Oliver was blinded by the bright lights of an approaching car.

The exterior of the Garrison Variety and Cafe received a new coat of paint this week. The cafe building is a recent addition.

Mrs. Cecil Haun and Mrs. Jerry Lyons drove to Portland Saturday and returned Louise Haun home from the Doernbecker hospital. She had been under treatment for several weeks. Louise, who has been ill since last October, is up and around after months of confinement.

Here I am back from Florida. Notice the complexion! You think that's sunburn? Frostbite!

To tell you the truth, there's very little difference between New York and Florida. Down there the snow is a little warmer, that's all.

One day last week I saw a flock of geese flying straight south of Pensacola and down below there was a pelican just sitting there and a-shaking his head and shivering and saying, "You'll be sorry!"

I always thought that Steve Allen, who replaced me while I was away, was Fred's son, but I found out he isn't—he's Gracie's father.

I was promoted last year—I'm a full commander now. And that's great stuff except for one thing! I spent a good many years in the Navy as an enlisted man and consequently—I know what THEY call a commander!

I was flattered indeed to see all of you here tonight. I thought—this is nice on a nasty night like this to see such a crowd—and then I overheard the lady over there in the first row saying, "Well, Mabel, at least we're in out of the rain!"

HEARD ON CBS TALENT SCOUTS

and Mrs. Albert Millsap were Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Klecker, Janet, Jeffrey and Kristene of Stayton, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Meinert and three sons of Mill City.

Mrs. Elmer Klutke was hostess Saturday afternoon to a group of youngsters who helped her son, Denny, celebrate his seventh birthday anniversary. Games were played outdoors at the Klutke home. Refreshments were served by the hostess—assisted by Mrs. Norman Norby—to Denny, his brother, Ross, Vern Slater, Freddy Butler, Billie Stewart, Cheryl Hirte, Karen Knox, Cheryl Evans, Jacque and Jean Norby, Larry Lyons, Carlyn Meilke, Bill and Carey Barr, Vicki Winnette, Charlot Van Cleave and Carol and Jimmy Reis. Mothers present were Mrs. George Meilke, Mrs. Reis, Mrs. Norman Norby and Miss Barbara Haun.

Ed Keith Oliver, who was recently inducted into the army, and who is stationed now at Fort Lewis, spent the weekend at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Oliver. Miss Jean Oliver, of Salem, was also at the home of her parents Sunday.

The beautiful cake, enjoyed by those attending the recent mock wedding fete celebrating the wedding anniversaries of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Volkel and Mrs. and Mrs. George Clise, was prepared, baked and decorated by Mrs. Glen Hearing. Those being served portions of the tasty victual were loud in their praise of its quality.

Members of the senior class of the Gates high school attended Baccalaureate services in Mill City, Sunday, with the Mill City high school graduates.

Commencement exercises for the Gates schools will be in the high school auditorium, Thursday evening, May 31. Those receiving diplomas will be LaVetta Rose Powelson, Barbara Haun will give the salutatorian address. Speaker of the evening Carey, Howard Schroll, Albert Zeibert Mrs. Gerald (June Mitchell) Garrison. LaVetta Powelson is the valedictorian. Barbara Haun will give the salutatorian address. Speaker of the evening will be Prof. Dellenback from Oregon State.

The all-school picnic of the Gates schools is Friday, May 25. The students will visit Breitenbush hot springs for the day's outing.

The junior-senior prom and banquet was held last Friday evening. The banquet was served in the recreation rooms of the high school. The dance program occurred in the beautifully decorated Gates gymnasium. Music was furnished by a Salem orchestra.
