MILL CITY

As usual Mill City school district 129-J held its annual election regarding the budget and school director this month, Monday evening, June 18. A hand show vote was taken on the budget. Russell Kelly was elected as the new school director. Kelly replaces Donald Sheythe, who was chairman of the school board this year.

Mrs. Bruce Thomas after a day's strawberry picking, was returning to Mill City via the Fern Ridge road near Mehama, when the car she was driving plowed into loose gravel, got out of control, rolled over and came to rest on its front. Nearly all the occupants of the car were injured in some way, but none critically. The car has been written off as nearly a total wreck.

Ralph & Esther's Cafe, Mill City Tavern, and Mill City Drug Store fronts received a bright new coat of paint this week. The Dawes building thereby takes on a much neater appearance.

Jim O'Leary winged his way aloft with Mrs. Don Morris on the first airplane ride of her life this week. Did the same thing with Donnie Gregory, Sunday.

Mrs. Veronica Kemper of St. Paul arrived today for a visit with Mrs. V. Klecker.

The Woman's Council of the Christian church will meet Wednesday, June 27, at the church parsonage.

H. D. Pound and Larry Dougal Lyons were among the janitors who attended a three-day school in Eugene last week. Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Pound, Jr. accompanied Mr. Pound home and spent Father's day here.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Duncan of Salem were visitors at the Ford Wilson home Sunday evening.

Mrs. Edith Mason left Sunday by bus for Boulder, Colorado, for a visit in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Isabel Lawson. While in Boulder, Mrs. Mason will attend summer school at the college there.

There will be a social gathering for all Santiam Memorial hospital campaign workers, wives and families to-night in the Mill City fire hall. A pot-luck dinner is scheduled at 6:30 p.m.

"Red" Thomas has been giving his doctor a bad time lately. "Red" got some ribs broken, but in spite of being taped "fit to kill" he climbed the athletic field light poles and bored holes for the cross-arms which will hold the light fixtures. Mr. Thomas hasn't even quit work, at least he hadn't today yet! A little birdie tells us he may though—soon!

Joe Vaughan recently got into a hassle with a chain saw and came out second best. Joe received a badly chewed leg for his efforts in the woods felling timber near Cascadia. He was immediately taken to the hospital in Sweet Home, but Wednesday Joe was seen about town on a crutch. Those who lugged Joe out of the woods unanimously agree that it is better that he carries his own weight—they don't like to carry him! Joe is very much all there!

Mrs. Robert Veness and children spent several days in Portland enjoying the Rose Festival and visiting
