ter, presided. Reports of various committees were heard. Some discussion took place regarding the Holy school bill, also regarding the block of electric power. John Lambrecht gave an interesting report on his trip to the State grange meet in Portland. Preceding the business meeting, Albert Julian, lecturer, released his time to Mrs. James Hollingshead, who introduced Dr. Guype of Albany. The doctor gave a very interesting lecture and showed pictures stating the reasons why people should take advantage of the chest X-ray which will be in Lyons Wednesday, July 25, 12 noon to 8 p.m. The X-ray aids in the detection of tuberculosis and other chest disorders which include lung cancer and certain heart conditions. Every person 15 years of age or over should take advantage of this opportunity.

Kenny Orr, little grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Hartnell had the misfortune of being bit in the face by the neighbor's dog. He was taken to a doctor who used three stitches in closing the wound.

Vernon H. Olsen, Marion Co. Health official, and Ernest Bucci, U. S. Public Health Service official were in Lyons last week contacting Mrs. James Hollingshead, local chairman for the chest X-ray mobile unit. Plans were made by them for the unit being in Lyons Wednesday, July 25, 12 noon to 8 p.m. The unit will be located west of the Lyons Food Market.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kunkle, Joanne, Judy, Juanita and Johnnie went to Eugene, Saturday. They, with her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Salchenberger, then went to the coast for the weekend.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Burmester made a business trip to Albany, Saturday. They returned to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Beran, on Roger Mountain near Scio, where they were Saturday evening and Sunday guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Jenner of Beverly Hills, California, visited at the home of his sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Hiatt, Mrs. Cora Jenner, who had been at the home of her daughter for some time, returned to California with her son and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gerath, Nova Ann and Richard, and Cathy Herald of Stayton made a trip to Camas Valley, Sunday. They visited Lloyd Gerath who is employed there.

Visitors at the Jim Phelps home were Mrs. Josie Schwake of Lancaster, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. William Nelson and Larry Smith of Trona, Calif. Mrs. Schwake is the mother of Mrs. Phelps.

Gloria Carr and Shirley Mohler returned home Saturday after spending a week at Smith Creek camp at Silver Creek Falls with a group of Girl Scouts.

Mr. and Mrs. Dean Trask and daughter of Portland spent the weekend at the home of his grandmother, Mrs. Inez Ring. Ralph Trask of Albany was a Sunday guest at the Ring home.

Mr. and Mrs. Wood Oliver returned home Monday after a two-weeks trip to Shawnee, Oklahoma. They also visited his two sisters in Rudy, Arkansas. Mr. Oliver had not seen his sisters for 21 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Bodeker and Elmer Hiatt with Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hampton, Douglas Earl and Margo Lee, and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Johnson and son, Chris, of Salem enjoyed a picnic at Suttle Lake, Sunday. The occasion honored the birthday anniversaries of Elmer Hiatt and Earl Hampton which were July 9.

Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Bass were Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Moses, and Frank Wood of Corvallis, Mr. R. J. Moses of Eureka, Calif., Miss Grace Dinges of Los Angeles, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Bass and family of Lyons, R. J. Moses of Eureka, Calif., is Mrs. Bass' father, and will remain for a short visit.

Mrs. Nora Foss and son, Paul, of Seaside were over-night guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Allen. They were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Worden. Mrs. Foss is an aunt of Mr. Allen and Mrs. Worden.

Mr. Donald McWhirk attended funeral services for his brother held at Spokane, Washington, the past week. Mrs. Charlie Cruson, a sister, could not attend.

Mrs. Glen Julian and her son, Glen, Jr., with her mother, Mrs. White, went to Portland, Sunday evening. Mrs. White, who has been at the Julian home for sometime, plans remaining at her home in Portland. Mrs. Julian and Glen will return the latter part of the week.

A small group attended the joint Stayton-Lyons Sunday school and church services and picnic at Silver Creek Falls, Sunday. Rev. R. A. Feenstra from Lyons gave the morning sermon and Reverend Abbott of Stayton sang several vocal solos. A good time was had by those attending.

Mr. and Mrs. Oral Toland spent the weekend at Goschen. They were guests in the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Gavette.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Casebeer and children moved last week to Arlington, Washington, where he will be employed. The Casebeers have lived in Lyons several years.

Recent guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Hollingshead were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Adams, Loralee, Kay and Ray, Jr., of Cloverdale, and Mrs. James Erickson and Maryn of Salem.

Angeles, California. Former pastor of the Gates church, Walter Smith, is now a Boy Scout executive.

Pastor Loren R. Swanson is the son of Mrs. Elsie Swanson of Los Angeles, California. His father is deceased. Pastor Swanson is a student in Northwest Christian College in Eugene. Since he is now a junior in this college, he anticipates being graduated in the summer of 1953.

President of the Northwest Christian College, Jim Smith of Montana, and Pastor Swanson conducted a youth evangelists meeting in Pastor Swanson's home church in Los Angeles, recently.

Pastor Swanson led the singing portion of this meeting and Smith did the preaching.

Some 40 persons attend the Gates Community Church of Christ Sunday services which include Bible school at 9:45 a.m. and church at 11:00 a.m. each Sunday. At present no Sunday evening services are being conducted.

tended in spite of the damp weather. A grand time was reported by those present—plenty of good "eats".

First Lt. Norman Carey, son of Mrs. Velma Carey, was wounded in action in Korea and has been hospitalized for the past month. Lt. Carey, veteran on World War II, has been awarded two Purple Hearts and other citations. He is also the father of a baby son, his first child, whom he has never seen. The boy was born, June 26, to his wife, Mrs. Betty Jean Carey, at an Albany hospital. The baby was named "Ronald Michael" and weighed 7 and a half pounds at birth. Mrs. Velma Carey is now "grandma" to three grand-daughters and two grandsons.

Mrs. John LaHaie has been in Portland for the past week and probably will not return for several days.
