Gates Lucky Twelve Say Adieu To Two

Mrs. Milly Doty and Mrs. Tacy Long today reached that turn in the road which beckons leave-taking of their friends of the Gates Lucky Twelve. In the full spirit and tradition of the club, members presented handkerchief reminders of their pleasant association with Mrs. Doty and Mrs. Long.

Mrs. Jean Wilson felt that Thursday, July 19, warranted something rather special for several reasons; therefore, being a first class hostess, she designed "Jean's chiffon strawberry shortcake" as the dessert luncheon for her guests. Gates Lucky Twelve, from the first bite, recognized a delicacy.

Mrs. Bertha Vanderhoff, with pinochle play, matched the finesse of hostess Wilson in developing desserts. Mrs. Vanderhoff made the winning of first prize seem the most simple thing in the world. Mrs. Marcella Peterson's presentation of the pinochle prize was applauded roundly. Mrs. Doreen Fowler gained restitution of spirit by receipt of second prize.

MILL CITY

Fireman Bill Stewart, Burnett Cole and Arey Podrabsky venture this thought—The Mill City Volunteer Firemen are conducting a waste-paper drive, Sunday, July 29,—remember? Large bundles of paper all packed and ready will be picked up if a Fireman gets the word. Big drive day, however, is July 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Dick Gorman have just returned from Cannon Beach. They spent a week and a half at the beach. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Teal and daughter Carolyn joined them at the beach Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brown, and daughter, Lynn, visited Mr. Brown's father, Mr. John Brown of Marcola, Sunday.

Mrs. Bert Morris provided the transportation to Stayton Thursday for

Mrs. J. Muir Calls Special Aux. Meet

Mrs. John Muir, president of the local American Legion Auxiliary, called a special meeting of the group Monday night in the Legion Hall for the purpose of discussing the coming installation ceremonies in September. Detroit and Idanha Legion Auxiliary groups will provide the installation teams for the Mill City installation ceremonies.

Mrs. Muir named on the local installation committee Mesdames Hudson, Ragsdale, Bruder, Jones and Chase. It was announced at the special meeting Monday night that the State Legion Auxiliary convention will be in Seaside, September 13, 14, and 15. Chosen as delegates to this convention were Mrs. John Muir and Mrs. Roy Chase. Alternates selected were Mrs. Grace Hudson and Mrs. Mary Clark.

Mrs. Ruth Stoval reported that American Legion Auxiliary membership pins have arrived and may be purchased from her. Mrs. Muir stated that two new Auxiliary members were needed in the local organization according to a membership quota set by the national organization.

Mrs. C. M. Cline, Mrs. Betty Nelson, Mrs. Fred Grimes, Mrs. H. D. Pound and Mrs. Charles Dolezal. The ladies attended a very educational lecture and flower arrangement demonstration by Carl Starker. More than a hundred garden club members in this district were in attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Duncan and Mr. and Mrs. Orval Hale of Salem were weekend guests of the Ford Wilsons.

Mrs. Otto Schieman of Salem visited the Bud Bruder home, Tuesday. Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Cline were also luncheon guests of the Clines.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur LeCours are spending several days with relatives at Bandon.

The George Vetoes left Tuesday on a vacation which will include visits with friends in Hawthorne and San Diego, California. The Vetoes plan a swing down into Mexico while touring near the border. They will return in two weeks. Mrs. John Swan is conducting the Nu-Method business in the absence of the Vetoes.

Mrs. George Stewart left Wednesday for a visit in Portland with her mother and father and other relatives. She is expected back, Saturday.

Mrs. Pete Pederson is in the Salem General Hospital recovering after undergoing major surgery. She was admitted to the hospital last Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. David McIntyre of Eugene were guests in the Charles Umphress home this week. Miss Marjorie Umphress returned with them to Eugene for a two-week visit.

The concrete foundation for the new Assembly of God church located near the B. L. Allen residence was poured this week.

Mr. and Mrs. James Poole, Jr. moved to Mill City this week. Mr. Poole is employed by a local logging company.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ingram and Mr. and Mrs. Al Hull of Parkdale visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Faust this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fritchel and family of Los Angeles, California, attended the funeral of Mrs. Nystrom. Mrs. Nystrom was the mother of Mrs. Fritchel. The Fritchels are former residents.

Miss Katherine Greenlee of Sydney, Nebraska, visited in the home of Mrs. L. E. Dike. Miss Greenlee teaches in a Seattle, Wash., school.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Plymale were called to Auburn, Washington, by the death of Mr. Plymale's brother-in-law this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Tony Ziebert and children, Lucille, Larry, and Luella,

Girl Scout Camp Now Well Staffed

Girl Scout Smith Creek Camp is in its third week. This session is for Brownie Scouts. The regular staff is assisted by qualified Senior Scout camp aides from Salem and Sweet Home.

There are still a few openings in the final session for Intermediate Girl Scouts, August 7 to 20. All other sessions have waiting lists.

The staff at Smith Creek this year is composed of the following: Miss Dorothy Wilson, field director, Santiam Area council; Miss Joyce Cropp, Seattle, Washington, business manager and dietitian; Miss Peggy Boyce, Prineville, waterfront director; Miss Iva Jean Schuttpeiz, LaGrande, her assistant; and Miss Barbara Smith of Everett, Washington, and Miss Olive Fields of Eugene unit leaders.

Assistant unit counselors are Miss Jo Jensen, Forest Grove; Miss Nancy Pond, Portland; Miss Elaine Robinson, LaGrande; Miss Patricia Nickel, Albany. Other staff members are Mrs. Elizabeth Hooper, Eugene, cook; Miss Iola Hoxworth, Corvallis, kitchen helper; Mr. Ray Thorpe, Eugene, handy-man. So far two registered nurses, Mrs. L. E. Block and Mrs. Norman Dodds, of Silverton are on the camp staff.

The position of nurse, required on the staff, has been most difficult to fill this year. One or more registered nurses for the final five sessions, who can serve all or just one session, are most urgently needed.

after the softball game Wednesday night, drove down the Oregon coast road to California for a short visit in Eureka, California. On the way back to Oregon they viewed Crater Lake and Diamond Lake. In Grants Pass the Zieberts stayed for a time in the Maple Motel owned by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Caswell who are former Mill City residents. The tired, but happy Zieberts returned to Mill City, Sunday.

Mrs. Arthur Robison and infant daughter, Susan Martha, returned home from the Salem Memorial hospital, Tuesday.

Miss Pat Wolverton of Vashon Island, Washington, has been visiting her many friends in this community this week.

"Flower Preparation for Show" will be the discussion topic at the regular Garden Club meeting this month. The meeting will be held in the Presbyterian recreation hall, Thursday evening, July 26. Mrs. Jennie Davis, Mrs. Gladys Podrabsky, and Mrs. Lee Owen are slated as the hostesses.

Miss Carol Jane Blazek, Queen of the Airshow, asked today that we extend to the business and townspeople her warm thanks for their generous help and contributions in regard to the Queen contest ran by the Mill City-Gates chambers of commerce in connection with the Third Annual Aviation Day.

DRIVERS LICENSOR ON DUTY

A drivers license examiner will be on duty in Mill City Thursday, July 26, at the Fire Hall between the hours of 9 a.m. and 4 p.m., according to an announcement received from the Secretary of State's office.

Persons wishing licenses or permits to drive are asked to get in touch with the examiner well ahead of the scheduled closing hour in order to assure completion of their applications with a minimum of delay.
