Mrs. Mable Quarles Sponsors Cardsters

Mrs. Mable Quarles carried high the honor of being today's hostess of Gates Lucky Twelve pinochle club. The call of the harvest fields and August's heat cut into the number of those answering roll call this afternoon.

Mrs. Alene Baker found today's card session more enjoyable because she won first prize. Mrs. Bertha Vanderhoff spiraled with fortune and ended up with the soaring prize in her arms. Mrs. Inez Teal opened the second prize package.

Hostess Quarles spread before her guests a one-thirty tasty dessert luncheon of stuffed tomato salad and cheese crackers.

Graduates of 1926 Planning Re-union

Plans are being completed this week for the re-union of the Mill City high school Class of 1926. The affair will be held Sunday, August 5, at the Clayton Baltimore home. A pot-luck dinner will be served at noon.

In the 25 years since the class was graduated, its members have settled in many different sections of the United States. One member, Anton (Tony) Moravec, Jr. passed away earlier this year.

At least one of the former teachers will attend the re-union. She is Miss Virginia Mason of Jefferson. Other teachers contacted include Dr. William Beck of Lake Grove and Mrs. Frank Colcord, nee Mildred Streevy, of Newberg.

Class of 1926 members include Clayton Baltimore, Earl Catherwood and Goldie Rambo of Mill City; Crystal Miller, Ruth Landon and Marion Klecker of Stayton; John Shaw of Los Angeles, California; Robert Olin, Seattle, Washington; and Lulubel Dunivan, Washington, D. C.

With velvet still the vogue, you undoubtedly know and use the old technique of fluffing up the nap with steam from the kitchen kettle. But do you make it a point to have the steam pushing through the wrong side of the velvet? That really raises the nap.

White ruffled curtains make a lovely frothy tablecloth for festive dining. Cover the table with a sheet tinted pink with all purpose dye, then set the curtain over it with ruffles swooped up in front and fastened with little bunches of flowers.

In all the many times you've made potato salad, have you ever noticed that sometimes the potatoes crumble when cut and sometimes they don't? It's the chilled potatoes that hold their shape. The still-hot ones usually fall apart when cut.

"Keep Off the Grass"—and that means you with the white shoes. But in case you don't, clean those grass stains as soon as possible with soap and water. Then, apply the trusty oil of white sholin.

To heat rolls or biscuits without lighting the oven, place them in the top of a double boiler and heat over actively boiling water. Takes about 15 minutes.

Rev. C. Hunt Holds All Day Services

The Mill City Community church is looking forward to service conducted Sunday, August 5, by Rev. Claude Hunt and family of Bakersfield, California, according to Rev. Wayne Watkins of the Mill City church.

Reverend Watkins indicated that Pastor Hunt and family would hold preaching services morning and evening Sunday. The daughter of Rev. Hunt, Judy Hunt, 9, sings with her mother and, also, alone. The Hunts have just completed worship services in the Calvary Chapel in Salem.

The Community church of Mill City is a fundamental church and all members of the public are welcome to any of their worship services. This Sunday's services are an all-day affair.

Fox Valley

David Scheiwek is nursing a sore hand since the first and second fingers of his right hand were badly crushed as a result of their being caught in the chain of his bicycle in such a manner that he could not release them. He went to a nearby house and had Mrs. Walker operate a wrench and screw driver while he told her how. In this manner she loosened the chain and released David's hand. David was returning from his Statesman paper delivery early Wednesday morning when he thought his cycle chain was not working as it should and without getting off the wheel he reached his hand down to the chain and got the ends of the two fingers pinched in the chain. He will lose the finger nails but is getting along okay otherwise. He has delivered papers since Sunday.

Mrs. Paul Searcy was a Portland business visitor, Monday.

Lynn Rodich had the nail of his second finger on his right hand mashed in a car door, Monday evening. It was too sore for bean picking Tuesday.

Jack Johnston is having a new roof put on his house in Lyons where the Ivan Smiths live east of Free's Garage.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Johnston and children Kathryn, Kenton, and Tommy were Central Oregon visitors, Sunday at the home of the Paul Johnston family near Culver.

Carl Searcy is doing carpenter work at the George Vanautmeal farm west of Lyons in the Twin Cedar district.

Those from the Mill City Christian church attending the Christian Youth Camp near Silver Creek Falls last week were Ralph Jull of Mill City, Bob Shelton of Pratum and Lynn Rodich of Lyons. They were accompanied by Minister H. E. Jull who served as assistant to the camp manager, and was appointed manager for the 1952 Youth Camp meeting.
