IT'S AMAZING!

Beach, Calif., were Gates visitors last week. Mr. and Mrs. Junn were former residents of Gates and still own property here—the former Melbourne Rambo home.

What might have been a serious accident occurred here early Sunday morning. A young man driving a blue convertible with the top down did not make the turn at the Joaquin corner and as a result crashed into a telephone pole. The car turned completely upside down with the driver still inside. Witnesses were amazed when he crawled out and hurried away, apparently unscratched. He made his exit so quickly, his name was not learned. The car was badly damaged.

Mr. and Mrs. Marion Balding, newcomers to Gates, have purchased a home on the Elkhorn road in the north part of Gates from Mrs. Adam Shepherd. The Baldings have three sons of school age.

Guests this week at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brisbin, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Ousterhout and Mr. and Mrs. George Arthurs were their brothers from Spokane, Wash., Roy Arthurs and James Arthurs.

Mrs. Clarence Ball was hostess at her home Thursday afternoon during a party honoring her daughter, Carol Sue, on her tenth birthday anniversary. Party games were played before Carol Sue opened her gifts. The hostess served refreshments to Carol and her little friends, Darlene Joaquin, Connie Stewart, Amber Bond, Lana Harrison and Bonnie Wilson.

Members of the Gates Euchre club were entertained, Friday afternoon by Mrs. Gwen Schaefer at her home. Luncheon was served by the hostess at one o'clock. Cards at three tables furnished entertainment. Those attending the affair were Mrs. Walter Brisbin, Mrs. Lula Collins, Mrs. Clarence Johnson, Mrs. Gerald Heath, Mrs. Martha Bowes, Mrs. Floyd Bassett of Lyons, Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Edmund Davis, Mrs. Robert Levan and two guests, Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt and Mrs. Alta Leedy. Mrs. Leedy received the guest prize. Mrs. Robert Levan held high score. Mrs. Walter Brisbin won second, and Mrs. Elmer Stewart was presented the consolation prize.

Percy Mulligan has leased the Maples Tavern east of Gates on the highway. It is reported he will take possession and operate the place about the first of the month. Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Ambers, the former owners, will leave Gates; their destination has not yet been announced. Mrs. Charles Smith has returned from a short vacation spent with her mother and family in San Francisco, California.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lou Ke'ley are her brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. C. Salmon of Chicago. The Salmons plan an extended visit in Gates. Mr. and Mrs. W. E. The Gates Volunteer fire department responded to another call to a fire in the locale of Remine's mill Monday afternoon. The fire started from the saw-dust pile at the mill located in the west part of town. This the fourth fire that has broken out at the mill from the same source. The fire Monday afternoon was soon put under control after the arrival of the firemen.
