

FEMME PAGE

Nelson-McClintock Wedding Described

Miss Anna Mae Nelson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Nelson of Mill City, and John B. McClintock, son of Robert McClintock of Portland, became husband and wife during a double ring wedding ceremony in Mill City First Christian church, Saturday evening, Sept. 1. Minister Hugh E. Jull performed the marriage rites.

The bride was attired in a powder-blue suit high lighted by a bouquet of pink roses and stephane on a white Bible. She was given in marriage by her father, John Nelson, Sr. The maid of honor Miss Donna Jean Nelson, sister of the bride, wore a brown suit with green accessories. Donna Carol Hoodenpyla, the groom's niece from Creswell, wore a pink suit with blue accessories.

John W. Nelson, the bride's brother, was best man. Miss Vera Loucks sang "Because" and "I Love You Truly" to the piano accompaniment of Mrs. Grace Hutchinson. The church was decorated with bouquets of pink and white gladioli and fern. Candle lighters were Miss Patricia Cree and Miss Josephine Roy. Ushers for the marriage were Verle Moberg, and George Neal of Lyons.

Mrs. McClintock is a graduate of Mill City high school. Her husband, who is now employed by the Thomas Bros. Logging Co. of Cottage Grove, attended Drain high school.

Following the wedding ceremony a reception for some 50 guests was given by Mrs. H. I. Plymale at the Christian church parlors. The McClintocks plan a short honeymoon trip to Yachats.

The McClintocks will return to Cottage Grove where they will make their home. Out-of-town visitors for

Miss Anna Nelson Feted in Cree Home

Miss Anna Mae Nelson, popular bride-elect of John B. McClintock, was guest of honor when Mrs. Lowell Cree and her daughter, Miss Patricia Cree entertained at their home Tuesday evening. Decorations featured garden flowers. The gift table was covered with a white cloth and centered with a tall bride doll. A bowl of flowers stood over a tiny bride and groom.

Games were played and prizes went to Mrs. John Nelson, Mrs. Arthur Kerr and Miss Daisy Hendrickson. Refreshments were a heart-shaped salad, tea sandwiches, and coffee.

Each guest brought or sent a recipe which was put into a recipe box and later given to the bride-elect.

Present and honoring Miss Nelson were: Mesdames John Nelson, R. P. Veness, Al Yankus, Vivian Hoenig of Salem, Ruby Ziebert, H. T. Caughey, Art Kerr, Louis Verbeck, J. C. Kimmel, John Swan, Clayton Baltimore, Arey Podrabsky, Bessie Vandermeer, Mrs. Nell Swift, Misses Daisy Hendrickson, Ellena and Norma Nelson, Betty Lou Cree, and the hostesses.

Not present, but sending gifts were: Mrs. Edith Mason, Mrs. J. M. Dickinson of Salem, Mrs. George Veto, Mrs. Harry Woods, Mrs. Harold Pound, Mrs. Carl Chance, Mrs. Clyde Golden, Mrs. Floyd Shepherd, Mrs. Oliver Muisse.

The wedding included sisters of the groom, Mrs. O. E. Hoodenpyla of Creswell and Mrs. Buford Anderson of Oakridge; the bride's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Folsom of Eugene; and the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Olga Nelson of Wecoma Beach.

Tickle Home Scene Of Bridal Shower

Miss Marlene Tickle, assisted by Miss Wilma Jull, was hostess for a bridal shower at her home, Sunday. Miss Anna Mae Nelson, bride-elect of John B. McClintock, was the honored guest. Games were played and prizes awarded to Sue Mikkelsen, high and Pat Davidson, low.

The gift table was covered with a lace cloth and centered with a wedding party of story-book dolls.

Refreshments were served after the opening of gifts. Present in Miss Nelson's honor were Mrs. John Nelson and Ellena, Miss Donna Nelson, Miss Sue Mikkelsen, Miss Patricia Cree, Miss Barbara Smith, Miss Ardith Jones, Miss Jo Roy, Miss Dorothy Downer, Miss Hazel Neal, Miss Beryl Mason, Miss Pat Davidson, Miss Vera Loucks, and the hostesses.

Sending gifts were: Miss Paula Jane Von Buskirk, Miss Lela Mel Kelly, Miss La Vetta Powelson of Corvallis; Miss Elora Albright, Miss Donna Bengston, Miss Beverly Timm, Miss Virginia Timm, Miss Alona Fay Daly, Mrs. William Tickle, and Miss Betty Lou Cree.

Fox Valley

Mr. and Mrs. George Nydegger went to Elk Lake Monday, for huckleberries. They had also been there Sunday afternoon and gathered some berries. There were lots of pickers at the lake.

Mrs. George Clippell is helping with a booth at the state fair representing the Sunday schools and youth group. She was home for the Tuesday evening youth meeting at Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Scarbrough of Myrtle Creek were weekend visitors with the Johnstons here. They attended the state fair and also visited relatives in Salem. Mrs. Scarbrough is a grand-daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Johnston and will be remembered as Betty Humphreys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clair Humphreys, of Myrtle Creek. The Humphreys are former Fox Valley residents. Betty and her husband returned to Myrtle Creek, Monday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Hunt have purchased the Bud Walker home east of Lyons and moved in when the house was vacated by the George Baileys who moved to Gates.

Leland Humphreys, who has spent the school vacation with his grandparents, the Johnstons, returned to his home in Myrtle Creek, Sunday. Leland worked in the bean harvest in this area. His younger sister, Clar-yce, stayed in Salem with her grandmother Humphreys and picked beans at West Staton several days. She also went home Sunday as the Myrtle Creek schools opened Monday, September 3.

Mountain States Power Co. has made quite a lot of line repairs in Fox Valley the past week. Installing larger transformers and some new poles.

DETROIT

By MRS. OPAL WHITE

Mrs. Raymond Sophy and sons have returned from a visit with Mrs. Sophy's parents, the Earl Waters family. Waters returned with them and visited during Labor Day. He returned to Yakima with his son and family, the B. E. Waters family of Yakima, who visited the Sophy's over the Labor Day holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Otis White and Mrs. Annie White visited in Eugene the L. M. Lien family, Thursday and Friday. They drove to Portland, Friday evening and brought home with them James, Marlene and Virginia White who spent the week-end with their parents in Detroit. The family, together with young folks Harlow White, Lauralee O'Brien and Stanley attended the state fair, Monday. The Whites drove to Portland, Monday evening with the young people and returned home, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hanan returned to Detroit, last Wednesday. They moved to Portland the previous Saturday. They are arranging rental of their houses here. John Hanan has charge of putting the new aluminum roofing on the grade school this week. The work is more than half complete.

There will be services again at the Christian church in Detroit beginning Sunday, September 9. Sunday school will be at 9:45 and church services at 11 a.m. There will be no evening services.

The Detroit Women's Civic club will meet at the home of Mrs. Arlene Sorseth, at the Detroit ranger station unless the members are notified differently. This is the regular September meeting. The August picnic was cancelled as a result of the recent fire. Mr. and Mrs. Ran Helwig spent Labor Day week-end at the coast.

"Was a nervous wreck from agonizing pain until I found Pazo!"

says Mrs. A. W., San Antonio, Texas
Speed amazing relief from miseries of simple piles, with soothing Pazo! Acts to relieve pain, itching instantly—soothes inflamed tissues—lubricates dry, hardened parts—helps prevent cracking, soreness—reduces swelling. You get real comforting help. Don't suffer needless torture from simple piles. Get Pazo for fast, wonderful relief. Ask your doctor about it. Suppository form—also tubes with perforated pile pipe for easy application.
*Pazo Ointment and Suppositories ©

School in Detroit Open Next Monday

Detroit—School will begin in Detroit, September 10. All teachers hired in the spring will return with the exception of Mrs. Al Cokenour and Mrs. Charlene Hanan. The teaching staff is: first grade, Mrs. Alice Perkins; second, Mrs. Russel Hoyt; first and second, Miss Spurgeon; third, Margaret Rasnick; fourth, Miss M. B. Miller; fifth, Mrs. Gladys Claxton; sixth, Russel Hoyt; seventh, Al Warby; and eighth, Mrs. Mildred Ray. Mr. Chester Boyle will be the new principal of the grade school.

Supt. White states that the bus schedule will be the same as it was last year; and that the school lunch program will start with the opening of school next Monday morning. Mrs. Wirts and Mrs. Ellingson will cook in the cafeteria this year.

High school faculty will be Otis White, principal; Stanley Whipple, coach, and Miss Kazi Inuzuko. Mrs. Charlene Hanan will return for the opening of school, but has submitted her resignation for the year.

MILL CITY

Walt Westgaard drove to Montana recently and brought back with him his mother. She will make Mill City her home.

Pfc Ernie Podrabsky of the U. S. Air Force was home on a short furlough. He left Wednesday for Camp Stoneman, Calif.

Jerry Swan came home on leave from his Navy duty this week.

There will be a formal initiation and installation of Legion Auxiliary officers in the Legion hall in Mill City Tuesday, Sept. 18. Mrs. John Muir announced today that all Legionnaires and their wives are invited to the affair.

The Charles Umphresses visited in Chehalis, Wash., at the home of Mrs. Umphress's sister's home, Sunday. They returned to Mill City, Monday.

Labor Day, the pastor of the Albany Assembly of God church, Reverend Book, and six or seven other men from that church's congregation helped with the construction work on the Mill City Assembly of God church.

Among those who spent Labor Day out-of-town were Mrs. Ruth Witt and A. R. Tohl. The couple drove to the Tohl Dairy ranch located on the beautiful Nehalem river in Tillamook county near Nehalem. The Tohl ranch which is now leased, has the reputation of being one of the finest in Tillamook county. On the ranch is a $24,000 dairy barn which accommodates a dairy herd of 80 fine milking Guernseys. Mrs. Witt and Tohl also visited Tohl's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Max Fisher of Portland, at the Fisher cottage in Wheeler.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Pound entertained at a family gathering, Sunday. Present were their children, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pound Jr., Eugene, and Mr. and Mrs. Ford Wilson, Jr. and daughter, Jeanne, Mill City; Mrs. Pound's sisters and brother-in-law, Mrs. A. T. Pederson, McMinnville and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Krukenberg, Fallon, Nev. and their brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Jessup, Cottage Grove.

Miss Betty Clinton of New Plymouth, Idaho, visited at the home of her brother, Everett Clinton, in Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Baker spent the weekend at the home of Mrs. Baker's parents in Astoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schroder and Mr. and Mrs. James Swan drove to Crescent City, Calif., Friday for a week-end visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Schroder.

Mrs. J. Personett and son, Ernest

Year's First P.T.A. Meet September 12

A Marion county health department representative, Miss Birbeck, and Mrs. Detering, new county health nurse for Mill City schools, will present the program for the first P.T.A. meeting, scheduled for 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium, Wednesday, September 12.

A thorough explanation of the services available through the Marion county health department will be covered in the program.

All parents of high school or elementary school students can get first hand at the next P.T.A. meeting the above valuable information plus make the acquaintance of their children's teachers.

This year, as in the past, the most-parents-present-contest will be conducted. The presence of the parents of students is counted towards the winning of a plaque and flag, which will be awarded the class and room having the most parents present during the school year.

Mothers of the high school students will serve refreshments for the P.T.A. group following the main program.

Mrs. Jim O'Leary will serve as P.T.A. president this school year.

Miller, were business visitors in Mill City, Saturday. Mrs. Personett transacted business in regard to her former home in Mill City.

The Presbyterian church missionary society met at the home of Mrs. Geddes, Thursday afternoon. Mrs. James Swan led the devotionals. Dr. D. Ferguson and Mrs. Caughey each gave interesting talks. Mrs. Geddes related her experiences concerning her former home in Wisconsin where her father was a missionary. Lunch was served to the guests by Mrs. Geddes and Miss Geddes.

Dr. and Mrs. Mark Hammericksen drove to Astoria, Sunday and took part in the Salmon Derby on the Columbia river. They also enjoyed the beach at Seaside. The Hammericksens returned home, Monday. A combined junior high and young people's fellowship meeting is being held each Tuesday evening in the Christian church basement. It is sponsored by Glen Shelton, Miss Alice Smith and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Clippell, and is for all interested young people of the community.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Remine and daughter have returned from a few days visit in San Francisco, Calif.

Miss Hope Baney, former local high school teacher, has accepted a teaching position in the Pendleton school system this year.

A bridal shower was given Wednesday, August 29, in the Clayton Baltimore home for Miss Anna Mae Nelson. Those honoring Miss Nelson were ladies Dean Jackson, Lorraine Caughey, Rachel Olmstead, Julie Bassett, Pattie Stewart, Evon Dart, Juanita Thomas, Barbara Podrabsky, Goldie Rambo, Wilma Stewart, Hattie Cole, Mel Robinson, Alma Thomas, Antonia Thomas, Ada Dart, Alura Chance, Jennie Davis, Lettie Swan, Mrs. Hazel Nelson.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank everyone for the many kind acts and sympathy extended us in our loss of our loved one.

Mrs. Louisa Wriglesworth Cecil Wriglesworth and family Russell Wriglesworth and family Ben Wriglesworth Daniel, Edward, and Herbert Romey

MILL CITY

SUNDAY and MONDAY
FRED MacMURRAY,
IRENE DUNN and
ANDY DEVINE in Never a Dull Moment
Terrific Comedy!

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY
JOHN BARRYMORE JR.
CORINNE CALVET
in Quebec
In Technicolor

THURSDAY
DIANA LYNEE
CHARLOTTE GREENWOOD
in
Peggy
In Technicolor

FRIDAY and SATURDAY
GLENN FORD and RHONDA FLEMING in
The Redhead And The Cowboy
Roy Rogers Riders Club
Matinee 2:00 p.m.

Doors open at 7:20 P.M.
Complete show can be seen any time up to 8:30

Pinochlers 'Take Five' For Picture-Taking

Gates Lucky Twelve Pinochle club members posed for picture-taking today as a diversion from the usual routine. Mrs. Marvin Keen was hostess for today's pinochle contest entrants.

Mrs. Joan Long totaled up a higher score than her competitors and won first prize. Mrs. Edna McCreary shifted from skill to luck by winning the pinochle prize. Mrs. Ruby Adamson took the status of second prize winner.

Hostess Keen set before her guests a dessert luncheon of virgin cake, ice cream and coffee.

CAFE MAR DEAN

Open 10:30 a.m.
to 12 Midnight

Highway 222 Mill City

CAR SERVICE

Marion CAR PARK
Commercial & Ferry

No Parking Worries
'In the Heart of Downtown Salem'

Complete Auto Service

Back to the classroom

COME IN AND SEE OUR FULL LINE OF SCHOOL SUPPLIES FOR ALL GRADES.

Thiel's Store
Your Friendly One Stop Store in LYONS
GROCERIES, MEATS, PRODUCE, AND FOOD LOCKERS
We Give Trading Stamps

Introducing -- Elfstrom's Own Provincial Collection

French Provincial and Early American Maple in soft, warm Salem finish --

You must come in and let our salesmen and decorators show you through this interesting New Department.

See the amusing and useful:

Milk Stools Knitting Bowls
Lamps What-Not Shelves

and complete model rooms set up for you to visualize it in your own home.

Maple for beauty, durability and for informal living.

R. L. Elfstrom Co.
340 Court St. SALEM

Furnish Your Table with

FARM FRESH

FRUITS AND VEGETABLES

from our Vegetable Cooler

Gates General Store