Pains, distress of "those days" stopped or amazingly relieved in 3 out of 4 cases in doctors' tests!

• Here's wonderful news for women and girls who — each month — suffer the tortures of "bad days" of functionally-caused menstrual cramps and pain — headaches, backaches, and those "no-good," dragged-out feelings.

It's news about a medicine famous for relieving such suffering!

Here is the exciting news. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound — gave complete or striking relief of such distress in an average of 3 out of 4 of the cases in doctors' tests!

Scientifically Modern Action

Yes! Lydia Pinkham's has been proved to be scientifically modern in action!

This news will not surprise the thousands of women and girls who take Lydia Pinkham's regularly and know the relief it can bring.

And it should encourage you (if you're not taking Lydia Pinkham's) to see if your experience doesn't match theirs... to see if you, too, don't avoid the nervousness and tension, weakness, irritability — and pain — so often associated with "those days"!

Remember Lydia Pinkham's, too — if you're suffering the "hot flashes" and other functionally-caused distress of "change of life."

Get Lydia Pinkham's Compound or new, improved Tablets with added iron (trial size only 50¢). Start taking Lydia Pinkham's today!

GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP

Members of the Arts and Crafts club, project of the Gates Womans club met last Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. George Clise for an evening spent in textile painting. This group is busy making many attractive articles to be sold at the bazaar to be sponsored by the club and held at the high school the evening of November 30. The ladies will meet each Wednesday evening at the Clise home. Those present at the last meeting were Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Glenn Gordon, Mrs. Burrel Cole, Mrs. G. E. McCarty and the hostess, Mrs. Clise.

Mrs. Glen Hearing has opened her home to members of the club who wish to sew for the bazaar each Monday evening. Any member who cares to help with the work is welcome.

Mrs. W. F. Funk from Vancouver, Wash., spent several days this week at the home of her mother, Mrs. George Bailey. Mrs. L. M. Bailey of Gresham is at the home of her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey and expects to make an indefinite visit there.

Fryer, Jules Hill and John Davis. James White was speaker on the panel speaking on the subject, "Sports covering and writing." The meeting was held in the Erb Memorial Student Union building on Friday and Saturday, October 12 and 13. The banquet in the evening was one of the main events of the conference. Otis White accompanied the students to Eugene as advisor.
