Autumn's Spirit Touches Gates Lucky Twelvers

The gentle mellowness of autumn's spirit and the gusty recognition of that season, Halloween, dominated the scene of today's meeting of Gates Lucky Twelve pinochle club. Mrs. Jean Wilson, as hostess, was the architect and creator of the pre-Halloween celebration motif.

Mrs. Hazel Irwin found the afternoon a rewarding one, since she won first prize. Mrs. Violet Keen also reversed the trend of Halloween by receiving the pinochle prize. Evil luck struck Mrs. Milly Wood, however; she ended the day with the lowest score and the accompanying prize.

Hostess Wilson warmed her guests' spirits by serving them chili and coffee, for the traditional one-thirty luncheon.

Miss Albright Wins Coloring Contest

"Alice in Wonderland" coloring contest results announced at the children's matinee in the Mill City Theatre last Saturday placed Miss Ila Mae Albright in first place. Miss Albright, age 10, received the first prize, a wrist watch.

Second place prize, a flashlight, went to Tommy Hautala, age nine. There was a tie for third place. Patrick Thomas, age 10, of Gates and Miss Linda Lee Herman, age nine, each were given third place prizes of a ball-point fountain pen. Charlie Stewart, age six, and Eric Hautala, age six, tied for the prize in the four to six age group; each contestant was given a billfold.

Total contestants numbered 24. All entries were excellent and judging was difficult.

Contestants not winning main prizes were given honorable mention and each was presented with an "Alice in Wonderland" comic book as a reward for his efforts.

Next big event at the Mill City Theatre children's matinee will be a Halloween costume contest, this Saturday, Oct. 27. This fun contest celebrates the approach of Halloween, Wednesday, Oct. 31.

Children appearing in appropriate costumes will be eligible for judging; and prizes will be awarded for the best costumes. All contestants will be rewarded.

In addition to the costume contest, there will be birthday cake, three cartoons, serial, three stogoes comedy, and a dandy feature picture.

Miss Patsy Pennick celebrated her birthday with nine guests last Saturday by a theatre party and ice cream and cake at Muir's bakery.

N. Santiam Workers Sew for Koreans

Detroit—North Santiam Willing Workers club met at the home of Opal White in Detroit last Wednesday afternoon. In the absence of the president, Mrs. Verne Morgan, Mrs. Frank New presided at the meeting.

Business for the afternoon included a discussion as to just what project the club might adopt for added interest. Mrs. New announced that she had made an effort to contact the red cross or civilian defense co-ordinator but to date had no reply from these regarding either a first aid class of some civilian defense project.

The topic for relief of some sort for Korean orphans was discussed and it was decided the club should make some pieced comforters lined with flannel or some other warm material for them. It was suggested that the club might co-operate with the Canyon aid in using for this purpose any clothing for which they had no use.

"Each member should bring some materials to the next meeting which will be the first Wednesday in November," Mrs. New reminded.

Refreshments were served by the hostess to the following guests, Mrs. Georgia New, Mrs. Pearl Giebler, Mrs. Betty Pittam, Mrs. Marie Rone, Mrs. Edna Gordon, Mrs. George Barney, and to three guests, Mrs. Jess Brown, Mrs. Chester Boyle and Mrs. Stanley White.
