Students on the honor roll for the six weeks in the junior-senior Gates high school included the following: seniors, Lorena Devine and Maxine Schroeder; juniors, Betty Tucker; sophomores, Ella Mae Drew; freshman, Eddie Butler and Rose Mason; eighth grade, Charles Kuhlman and Judy Mershon; seventh grade, Donalee Oliver.

Patsy Pennick was complimented on the occasion of her sixth birthday anniversary when her mother, Mrs. William Pennick invited several of her small friends to join her in a line party to see "Alice in Wonderland" at the Mill City theatre to be followed by the usual birthday cake and ice cream at Muir's bakery. The group included Patsy and Billy Pennick, Claudia Bemish, Barbara Jean Hirte, Frances and Warren Reid, Mrs. J. W. Reid and Mrs. Pennick.

Seen in Salem Saturday were Mrs. Joe Joaquin, Mrs. Edward Chance, Mrs. Robert Levon and Ray Lord, en route to Portland for the weekend.

Mrs. Ray Lord was called to La Grande the first of the week by news of the serious illness of her mother, who it is reported had fallen and fractured her hip. Her advanced age, 90 years, added to the seriousness of the accident.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Newberg from Duluth, Minnesota, are new comers to Gates. They will operate the boarding house formerly operated by Mrs. Newberg's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Percy Mulligan, who recently leased and are at the Maples Cafe and Tavern.

The grand opening of the Maples cafe and tavern was held Wednesday evening, Oct. 31. Refreshments were served to those attending. Mr. and Mrs. Percy Mulligan, new managers, make a specialty of "muligan stew", also serve sandwiches and chili.

There has been an epidemic of bad colds and flu here the past week. Among those ill and confined to their homes were Mrs. Harold Wilson, Mrs. Edmund Davis and Mrs. Lula Collins.

Mrs. Elmer Stewart returned home last weekend following a week spent in Seattle where she was the guest of relatives. Upon her return Mr. Stewart left for Eastern Oregon, elk hunting.

Robert Boaz was seriously injured Saturday afternoon when his car failed to make a sharp curve on the highway about two miles east of Gates. The car left the road and turned over four times before landing in the ditch below. Boaz, alone in the car received serious head injuries and was taken by ambulance to a Salem hospital. The car was badly damaged. At last reports his condition was unchanged. He is the son of Mrs. Don Gessner and was employed on the Detroit dam. He, his wife and three children have resided here for the past two years.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Montag of Portland were Gates visitors Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Montag, who are owners of the Park Motel and Rainbow court had recently returned from a trip to New York City.

Among those from Gates attending the N. Santiam Chamber of Commerce dinner and program in Sublimity, Wednesday evening of last week, were Mayor Jerry Lyons, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison, Mrs. Floyd Volkel, Mrs. W. S. Hudson, Don Miley, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Hutcheson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Brisbin and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap.

Mrs. Floyd Volkel, Mrs. Arthur Findley and Mrs. Albert Millsap were delegates representing the Gates Woman's club at the Marion County Federation of Women's clubs, which was held in Salem Friday.

Members of the Gates Woman's club are busy preparing for the annual bazaar which will be held at the high school recreation rooms the evening of November 30 and at rehearsals of the play, "Love Rides the Rails", a "Meller Dramer", which will be presented December 6, at the Mill City theatre.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Chance and twins were Sunday guests in Albany at the home of Chance's brother and family. The two younger children stayed in Gates at the Joe Joaquin home.
