Miss Valrie Walker Weds Paul McCellan

Miss Valrie Walker was married during Thanksgiving ceremonies in the Lyons Methodist Community church to Paul T. McCellan.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Monroe Walker of Lyons. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McCellan of West Stayton. Rev. R. A. Feenstra performed the double-ring wedding ceremony before an altar decorated with orchids and white chrysanthemums.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a grey suit, navy accessories, and carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid, white ribbon streamers and stephanotis. The matron of honor was Mrs. Marion Chamberlain, sister of the bride. She was attired in a dark suit adorned with aqua accessories. Gene McCellan was best man; and Loren Walker, brother of the bride was usher.

A reception was held in the club room following the wedding ceremony. The bride's table was centered with a three-tier wedding cake. Mrs. Don Fields, aunt of the groom from Calgary, Canada, cut the beautiful cake. Another aunt of the groom, Mrs. Lola Alter, presided at the punch bowl; Mrs. Melvin Peck, cousin of the bride served coffee. Others serving were Mrs. Loren Walker and Mrs. Bud Walker, sisters-in-law, of the bride.

The Paul McCellans will make their home in Corvallis. The couple will take a wedding trip into Vancouver, B.C. The groom is a student at Oregon State college. The Thanksgiving day marriage commemorated the 27th wedding anniversary of the bride's parents.

James Franklin was the printer for the Boston Gazette, second newspaper in America, started in 1720. William Brooker was the editor.

Johnson-Faust Rites Thanksgiving Day

The First Presbyterian church in Mill City Thanksgiving day was the scene of the wedding ceremony of Mrs. Virgie Johnson and Robert M. Faust. Rev. K. Abbott of the Stayton Methodist church performed the ceremony at high noon.

Maid of honor was Miss Clorinda Johnson, daughter of the bride. Byron Johnson, son of the bride, escorted her to the altar. Best man was Robert Trask, brother in law of the groom.

The bride wore a beige suit and black accessories. She carried pink rosebuds. The bridesmaid's rose beige suit was highlighted by talisman rose buds. Candle-lighters Joy and Sue Johnson, daughters of bride, wore Alice blue suits. Decorations at the church included bronze and white 'mums.

Mrs. Robert Trask sang "Through the Years" and "Because". Mrs. Lee Ross accompanied her at the organ. Lee Ross, brother in law of the groom, was usher. Sixty guests attended the reception in the church recreation room immediately following the wedding.

After a short trip to Columbia river points the couple will make their home in Taft, where Faust is employed at the Oregon Pulp & Paper company plant.

Thanksgiving Program At Detroit Grade School

The grade school at Detroit celebrated Thanksgiving by holding a Thanksgiving Assembly on Nov. 21, in the gymnasium. The program began with a flag salute, and the first verse of the Star Spangled Banner. The entire group then sang the Thanksgiving prayer.

Mrs. Surgeon's first grade class gave a poem, "Polite," and sang two songs, "The Donkey's Christmas" and "The Frog's Christmas" and gave reasons for being thankful.

Miss Miller's room gave two readings entitled, "At Thanksgiving" and "Where are You Going, my Pretty Maid?" carried on as a dialogue reading between boys and girls.

The second grade and third sang the "Gobbler Song."

Mr. Russell Hoyt's class of sixth graders gave a chorale reading entitled "Thanksgiving."

Mrs. Gladys Claxton's fourth grade girls, ten of them, gave a Thanksgiving Acrostic.

Following these numbers the group again sang, "Now thank we all our God."

Mrs. Alfred Cokenour's class gave a Thanksgiving play which was entitled, "The First Thanksgiving."

Following this number there were three songs by the assembly "Give Thanks," "Swing the Shining Sickle," and closing with the "Doxology."
