TEDDY ROOSEVELT WAS NOT A "TRUST BUSTER"

It is popularly believed that President Theodore (Teddy) Roosevelt was one of the greatest "trust busters" of his day, but this is all the bunk, says Ferdinand Lundberg, in his best-selling book, "America's Sixty Families." This author—who ought to know the facts—says Teddy was not a trust buster at all; that the real trust buster was that smiling, fat and good natured William Howard Taft.

Joe Joaquin home. Mrs. Sweet, Mrs. Joaquin's aunt remained at her neices home, while Mr. and Mrs. Lyons made a trip to Portland.

WE'LL put it up to you! There must be plenty of good reasons why more people buy Chevrolets than any other car.

Here are some things to think about.

There's the way Chevrolet looks. Nice clean, curved lines—like cars in the high-price field! Chevrolet's Body by Fisher sets the pace among low-priced cars.

There's the way Chevrolet rides and handles. The smoothness and big-car comfort of Uni-tized Knee-Action. Bigger brakes—biggest in the field—for safer, surer stops. Finest no-shift and standard driving at lowest cost with Powerglide or Synchro-Mesh transmission.

There's the way Chevrolet saves. Chevrolet is the lowest-priced line in the field and the savings go on and on with low operating costs.

There are plenty more reasons why Chevrolet is America's favorite. Come in and let us show them to you.
