Local O.E.S. Holds Eventful Session

It was an eventful meeting for Marilyn Chapter No. 145 O.E.S., Monday night, Dec. 10, in the Mill City I.O.O.F. hall. Degrees were conferred and an election of officers held.

Degrees were conferred on Nancy Haseman and Monroe and Roberta Ray. These persons were presented pins by their respective parents. A beautiful floral degree was put on in honor of Lois Scott, worthy matron; and Floyd Johnson, worthy patron.

Marilyn Chapter, O.E.S., election results indicated that Halle Toman was elected worthy matron for the ensuing year. Wilson Stevens was chosen, worthy patron; Laurell Johnson, associate matron; George Huffman, associate patron; Betty Tinney, conductress; and Stella Kay, associate conductress.

Refreshments were served after the business part of the meeting by the men. Wilson Stevens had charge of the committee.

Installation of the newly elected O.E.S. officers will be January 7, 1952. The public is invited to this colorful ceremony.

Mrs. Alice Huber Hosts Monthly Teacher Party

Lyons—Mrs. Alice Huber was hostess for the regular monthly meeting of the teachers of the Mari-Linn school at her home Monday evening, Dec. 10th at 7:30 p.m.

Thomas Putman, principal, called the meeting to order for a short business session. He also gave a report on Miss Irene Halbergs visit to the school.

The date for the school Christmas program was announced for Dec. 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the new gymnasium. A beautiful Christmas tree and other holiday decorations decked the living room for the gift exchange that followed the meeting, after which mince pie and coffee was served.

Those attending included Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Putman, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Roscoe Poole, Mrs. Elva Kuiken, Mrs. Hazel Wirth, Ralph Hurst, Gladys Hurst, Vivian Boyce, Norma Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Skillings and Mrs. Alice Huber. Miss Boyce and Miss Miller assisted Mrs. Huber.

Mrs. Doreen Fowler Has Pinochle Hostess Spot

Mrs. Doreen Fowler ushered in the pre-holiday sitting of Gates Lucky Twelve pinochle club. Hostess Fowler served her guests a delectable lunch of tasty sandwiches and salad, this Thursday.

Mrs. Inez Teal played handsomely and was rewarded by having first prize presented to her. Distributing the traveling and second prizes was no trouble since Mrs. Rosella Haywood received both.

Fox Valley

Mrs. Merwyn Knox, with Mrs. Keith Phillips of Mehama attended the annual Turkey exhibition at McMinnville Friday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Grover Rodich were Saturday night and Sunday visitors at the P. W. Rodich home. The young folks are students at Corvallis and Eugene. Mrs. Rodich is at Oregon State college and her husband is taking a special music course at Eugene.

Mrs. Carl Scarcy and three sons of Turner were Saturday callers at the Powers home.

Mrs. Trahan spent Thursday afternoon with Mrs. P. W. Rodich.

The Brown family, who lost all their household goods and clothing when their home burned last week are badly in need of clothing, bedding, etc. They have two small children, a boy three and a girl one year old. Any one who has such articles to spare will be helping a worthy cause.

Mrs. Brown barely had time to get her children out, when she discovered the house was on fire. There was no insurance on the furniture or clothing. It was also reported the owner of the house had no coverage on the building.

The mills were idle part-time last week on account of power outages during several days, caused by the high wind and stormy weather visiting this section.

Hugh Johnston is building a new truck shed. Jim Lande is doing the carpenter work. The building has concrete floor and foundation. It will be large enough to provide cover for five trucks and trailers.

Mari-Linn School Presents Pageant

Lyons—The Christmas pageant, "Christmas Around the World" will be presented Friday evening, Dec. 21, at 7:30 p.m. by the pupils of the Mari-Linn school in the new gymnasium.

"Christmas Around The World" depicting Christmas in seven countries was written by members of the teaching staff, especially adapted for the occasion. The seven countries include:

Scene 1—Holland, directed by Katie Skillings; Scene 2—Mexico, directed by Hazel Wirth; Scene 3—England, directed by Norma Miller; Scene 4—France, directed by Thomas Putman; Scene 5—Ireland, directed by Ralph Hurst; Scene 6—Germany, directed by Elva Kuiken; Scene 7—America; directed by Ivan Smith.

The complete program is directed by Miss Vivian Boyce musical instructor of the Mari-Linn school with Mrs. Martha Poole as accompanist. In addition to the pageant an upper grade and lower grade choir will add to the program. Also new on the program this year will be a number by the pre-school children.
