By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP
At the Floyd Fleetwood home were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Beifell and two sons from Hood River and their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Fleetwood of Mill City.

Mr. and Mrs. George Clise had as their dinner guests his brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Clise from the North Fork and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Ashelford of Gates.

Mrs. Lula Collins accompanied her daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. C. Roseheim of Lyons to Salem Christmas where they joined other members of the family at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claude Sellard. Mrs. Sellard is Mrs. Collin's daughter.

Sunday guests at the Norman Garrison home were Mr. and Mrs. Willard Berry and son Allan from Holly, Ore., where he is employed as state forest inspector.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Bonitz left Saturday for Missouri to spend the holidays with her mother whom she has not seen for 11 years. The Cafe (Pauline's) will be closed until their return January 8.

A Christmas program was presented by pupils of the grade school and students of the high school, in the high school gymnasium Thursday evening Dec. 20. An interesting program of songs and exercises by the grades and a Christmas pantomime, "Why the Chimes Rang" with Joan Ryal reader, by a group of high school students was enjoyed by the large crowd in attendance. After the program each child was presented with candy.

A Christmas party was held in each room of the grade school Friday afternoon with tree and gift exchange. A special luncheon was served at noon to the high school and party and gift exchange for the students held at that time Friday.

Mrs. Spenser Long and daughter, Mrs. Norman Carey and small son were Friday visitors at the home of Mrs. Velma Carey.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Haun and three children and Mrs. Haun's father, L. L. Larson of Springview, Nebraska, who has been visiting at the Haun home for several months left the middle of last week for Nebraska, to spend the holidays with relatives.

At the Edmund Davis home were their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Overlock and daughter from Seattle.

Miss Eilene Eccleston arrived Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Eccleston for over Christmas. Eilene is employed in Medford.

NASHVILLE, TENN.—On Christmas Day read the Christmas story as it is found in Matthew's Gospel. This is the invitation of millions of individuals and families around the world who use The Upper Room as their daily devotional guide.

Shown above are portions of the page for Christmas Day from 10 of the 16 editions that make this publication the world's most widely used devotional guide and give its readers the daily inspiration of sharing the same Bible reading, prayer and meditation with people in all parts of the world.

People of many lands, many languages and many races—people in humble cottages and in mansions—men in the armed services, on foreign fields, on the sea, and in camps at home all have the feeling of unity that sharing the same daily meditation brings.

All those who share The Upper Room urge you to join with them, especially on Christmas day, for a time of Bible reading, meditation, and prayer either as an individual or in a family group.

The Debunker

BY JOHN HARVEY FURBAY PH D

STERLING SILVER IS NOT PURE SILVER

If you owed a person $1 in the United States, and tried to give him 100 American 1-cent pieces in payment, he would not have to accept them, because the law states that they are legal tender only up to the amount of 25 cents in payment of a debt. Nickels are legal tender up to 25 cents, and dimes, half-dollars and quarters are legal tender only up to the amount of $1 in payment of obligations.
