At the evening service a good crowd heard the community choir, directed by Mrs. David Zimmerman, present a program of Christmas music.

Rev. R. A. Feenstra has chosen "All's Well that Ends Well" as his theme for the last Sunday of 1951. In the evening at 7:30 he will tell the story of "The Other Wise Man."

The Pageant "Christmas Around The World" written by the teachers of the Mari-Linn school was viewed by a capacity crowd, when it was presented at the new gym Friday evening, Dec. 21. The pageant which showed the Christmas spirit in seven countries included Holland, Mexico, England, France, Ireland, Germany, and America, was directed by Katie Skillings, Hazel Wirth, Norma Miller, Thomas Putman, Ralph Hurst, Elva Kuiken and Ivan Smith. Besides the pageant, Miss Vivian Boyce, music instructor, presented the school band in several numbers, also the lower and upper grade choir. The lower grades sang, "Rudolph The Red-nosed Reindeer," "Santa Claus is Coming to Town," "Up on the House Top," and "Away in a Manger." The upper grades, presented "Winter Wonderland," "It Came Upon a Midnight Clear," "O Little Town of Bethlehem," and "Joy to The World."

Following the program distribution of treats for the kiddies was made by the Mari-Linn P.T.A. with Mrs. Keith Phillips, president.

Rev. and Mrs. Feenstra entertained the teachers, Misses Vivian Boyce and Norma Miller and Cpl. Wayne Bass at dinner on Wednesday evening last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Toland, Sharon and Melvin, left for Corcoran, Calif., where they will spend Christmas at the home of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Yeager. Her mother Mrs. Gladys Stoffler who has been visiting the Yeagers, will return home with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Cruson were hosts to their church school class, Tuesday evening, and nine couples and eight individual guests enjoyed the attractive holiday decorations and the cordiality they displayed. Games were played which recalled the Christmas past. Devotions were led by the pastor—teacher of the class, Rev. R. A. Feenstra. Mrs. Thayer reviewed the chapter from the textbook which they study, called "Children are People" and a discussion was held upon it. The singing of carols and Christmas songs occupied the guests until they were served delicious refreshments and distributed their gifts which were from the store of "white elephants" on hand. Besides the Leonard Crusons and their children Micheal and Nikki, guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Cruson, and Bonnie, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Cruson, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Naue, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Walton, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Thayer, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Garsjo, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Putman, Rev. and Mrs. Feenstra, John Prideaux, Mrs. Kay Wolford, Mrs. Ward, Miss Vivian Boyce and Miss Norma Miller were present.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Nydegger and their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn Hunt, left on a trip through California. They plan to go as far as the Mexican border. Mr. and Mrs. Cletus Nydegger of Stayton will stay at the Nydegger home with the smaller children while they are away.

Bertha Allen and Garnett Bassett were hostesses for the afternoon card club with their party held at the Rebekah hall Wednesday afternoon. A one thirty dessert luncheon was served followed by several tables of 500. High score was held by Lucille Donovan, second high by Mabel Bass, low by Ethel Huffman, and Margaret Kunkle drew the traveling prize. Present for the afternoon were Bernice Bridges, Leota Worden, Mabel Downing, Lucille Donovan, Carrie Naue, Doreen Helem, Modena Carleton, Margaret Kunkle, Ida Free, Wilma Free, Doris Roy, Thelma Nydegger, Bea Hiatt, Eulalia Lyons, Ethel Huffman, and the hostess Bertha Allen and Garnett Bassett.

Mrs. Alex Bodeker assisted by Mrs. Charles Cruson was hostess for the meeting of the Womens Society of Christian Service held at the Bodeker home Tuesday afternoon, with the room beautifully decorated carrying out the holiday motif. Mrs. Bodeker led the devotions assisted by Mrs. Wood Oliver, Mrs. Albert Julian and Mrs. Zimmerman. Mrs. Rinke Feenstra gave an interesting talk on missions. Mrs. Willard Hartnell in charge of the program was assisted by Mrs. James Hollingshead and Mrs. Alice Huber with readings. Mrs. Ed Hargreaves presented a piano solo, which was followed with carol singing, and a gift exchange, also gifts for their silent sisters and names revealed. At the close of the meeting Mrs. Bodeker and Mrs. Cruson served dainty refreshments to Messames Eugene Roye, Willard Hartnell, William Titmas, Ed Hargreaves, Rinke Feenstra, Ernest Garsjo, Oscar Naue, Russell Theil, Burl Smith, Loren Chamberlain, James Hollingshead, Howard Naue, George Huffman, Wood Oliver, Ivan Smith, Albert Julian, George Clippell, Clyde Bressler, W. Zimmerman, Mrs. Alice Huber and Mrs. Inez Ring.

PFC Kenneth Lewis and wife arrived in Lyons the middle of the week from Camp Stewart, Georgia. They will spend the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Lewis in Lyons and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Miller of Mehama.

Mr. and Mrs. Oral Toland left Thursday for Prineville, where they will spend the holidays with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fetherston.

The Mt. Jefferson lumber company mill closed down Wednesday evening the 19, for a short vacation. Plans are to resume work January 14. Some repair work will be done during that time.
