IDANHA

Mrs. Pat Patterson received word that her son Pfc. Stephen Toycon who has been in Korea for several months, is ill with some sort of fever. Steve wishes all old friends would write him. He gets mighty lonesome, he says he will answer all letters he receives. His address is U. S. 56110295, U. S. Army Hosp. 8167, Army Unit, APO 1055, 5th PM, San Francisco, Calif.

Our boys get mighty homesome away from their native land. I think writing a letter a day to some lonesome lad is about as "Good a deed for the day as I know of."

Mr. and Mrs. Tomlinson and small son were Idanha visitors over the weekend. They were former Idanha residents, about a year ago. They moved to Prineville or where "Vern" is employed. Mrs. Tomlinson is the former Shirley Willis of Idanha.

Oscar Renn has returned home from his trip to Kansas City. No place like home he says, and he intends to stay there hence forth. Too much snow down that-a-way says he.

My thought of the week—one should clean their mind at the end of each day. If one does not it becomes like a house that has been allowed to get all cluttered up with trash. The cleaning job is a big one, and an unpleasant one.

Mr. and Mrs. John Faulhaber and son Johnny, spent all the holidays in Milwaukee, visiting Mr. Faulhabers brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Mahoney.

Johnny Faulhaber has been a very sick little boy the last few days. His temperature was 103. Too much candy and turkey Johnny boy.

Mr. and Mrs. Charley Thompson went to Portland for a few days, or until things sort of open up here.

All the mills are down except the plywood right now, and if this snow keeps up no telling when they will resume operations. Over six inches fell here between ten a.m. and four p.m. today, Monday, Jan. 7th and it's still a snowing.

Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davis and son John went to Eugene last week. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Lester Beeson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ledbetter of Bend spent New Year's week with Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Davis.

Bill Smith left by bus; he is going to Woodburn to seek employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Keith White are new residents of our fair City. They formerly lived at Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Carte took a carload of happy youngsters skiing at the Hoodo Bowl on the Santiam pass last Sunday. They were Anna Bess Carte, Marla, Lanny and Gerald Vickers, John Davis and Dick Woodward. They had the time of their young lives.

Mr. and Mrs. Orval Lady had as dinner guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. George Cannon and children of Willamina. Mrs. Cannon is the former Marion Lady.

Book learning does not make the smartest men. Some of our greatest men of past generations hardly knew what the inside of a school house looked like. They educated them-

DE-HI News

The Detroit Cougars gave the Gervais Cougars a good fight at Detroit's gymnasium Friday, January 4. The basketball score was close several times with Detroit leading most of the time. At the end of the fourth quarter the score tied 44-44. A five minute overtime was played and Gervais won by the narrow margin of 45-47.

Palmer was high scorer for Detroit with 23 points. McCall led Gervais with 18.

selves; looked about them and observed others mistakes or gains and profited by them, not making the same mistakes themselves. They thus lived a full and rich life, not for love of self, but for their fellow man. Those men that educated themselves shall be down in history to the end of time.

There is a petition going around for people to sign. Its to have the state unemployment compensation men to come up here instead of all the men going to Mill City. Is for one think its a good move. Many poor folk do not have a car to make the trip with and if they did, would not have gas to run it with. So many have to depend upon the generosity of their neighbor whom is lucky enough to have a car with gas in it.

There is more sense I should think, for one car and two men to come up here, than, for hundreds to go down there and spend money they cannot afford to spend. They can't help but spend, now for instance, one man whose time is two p.m. must go with another whose time is eleven. They all eat dinner, and at one-twenty-five a head for that dinner, makes a big hole in twenty-five smackers for the man whose time was set at eleven. Naturally he wants to be a good sport. He pays for dinner anyhow, as the man who rode along bought the gas and oil.

The roads are bad also; Idanha would not mind going to Detroit, nor would Detroit mind coming up here, after all it is only four miles. One could walk it if one had to.

The American Legion Auxiliary met at the home of Gertrude Alvin. Ten members were present, mesdames Floy Storey, Myrtle Geston, Bernadine Croll, Thelma Smith, Carrie Storey, Alma Lady, Rossele Vickers, Esther Fouts and Pearl Giebler. The next meeting will be on Jan. 22, at the home of Myrtle Geston.

A benefit dance for the March of Dimes with all organizations sponsoring will be held. Time and place will be announced later.

A moving picture at the "Canyon Theatre" Jan. 19; proceeds to go to the March of Dimes is sponsored by the American Legion.

The ladies of the auxiliary will pop corn to sell. The proceeds will also go toward the March of Dimes.

Mill City Hi-Lites

Thirty-nine to thirty-six was the final score of the Mill City-Gates basketball game played Tuesday night on the Mill City floor. The 'Wolves' pulled the game out of the fire in the last seconds of the game after leading by one or two points at each quarter mark. See the sports section for details. On Friday of last week the Mighty Men of Mill City high won another hard-fought game—this one with the Cow Town Kids from St. Paul, scene of the famous Rodeo. (I thought I recognized one of the bulls on the basketball team). We didn't like too well the brand of basketball—which wasn't as pure as freshly-fallen snow—that they played. Amiable relations, I'd call it.

It was Senior's day for assembly entertainment of Wednesday, as the student body, including both the students and those who also go to school, enjoyed a pantomime, "Shooting of Dan McGrew"; Mr. Chaney, who has had previous experiences with such a skit, directed the cast which included: Bob Baltimore, Darrell Farmen, David Keyes, Dolores Poole, Bill Hamblin, Gary Peterson, Charles O'Kins, Shelby Umphress, Ardith Jones, Alona Daly, Delmar Skillings, Dick Downer, Nick Waite, and the narrator, Bob Shelton. After Dangerous Dan McGrew was disposed of, Ardith Jones sang "I Apologize, and Gary Peterson played a trumpet solo of "And So To Sleep Again". That evening the "miner, fresh from the creeks, dog dirty, and loaded for bear" again stumbled across the stage, and Dan McGrew again was found "pitched on his head, and pumped full of lead" for the benefit of the PTA.

The March of Dimes program is under way with an evening of volleyball and basketball. Friday night various teams competed in basketball and volleyball, the admission price, which went into the kitty for the March of Dimes, was forty cents for adults and ten cents for students of both high school and grade school. President Roosevelt instituted this campaign to provide funds for the fight against infantile paralysis.
