DETROIT

By MRS. OPAL WHITE
Mr. and Mrs. Stanley White and children, Kathleen and David spent the weekend with the Harold Mitchells in Terrebonne, returning home on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Stock and family from Sweet Home, have been called to the Christian church in Detroit. Mr. Stock is a student at Northwest Christian College in Eugene.

The recent snow falls have not only slowed down the work in woods and mills in this vicinity but has also slowed down the work in the new Detroit area. There have been four buildings, business houses, under construction in that area the past few weeks. The new post office being constructed by Guy Moore, the new Detroit Market by Ray Sophy, and a tavern under construction by Layman, also a nightclub restaurant combination under construction by Renner-Rynearson and Russell. The recent snow fall has forced all work on these construction jobs to cease.

There will be a benefit show at the Canyon Theatre in Detroit on Jan. 19 for the March of Dimes. This show is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary. You are urged to attend. There will also be a dance on Feb. 2 at the grade school gymnasium which is a March of Dimes benefit. The chairman Nolan Rasnick announces his helpers at follows: Holland Storey, Floy Storey, Quincy Smith, John Ray, Ruth Skidmore, Mrs. Ran Hellwig, Mrs. John Ray and Mrs. Russel Hoyt, Mrs. Earl Parker, Mrs. Nolan Rasnick, Mrs. Nancy Monroe, Leo Fitzgerald and Mr. Frank Ray. Ticket sales are in advance and ticket sellers are Mrs. Esther Fouts and Mrs. Guidine Geston of Idanha.

George Brasmer, formerly of St. Helens but now of Idanha with his band will furnish the music. All benefits go for the March of Dimes and all assistance is donated.

There will be refreshments of sandwiches, cake and coffee.

The Marion county health survey reached to the vicinities of Mongold, Detroit and Idanha on Monday of this week when three representatives of Marion Co. health offices visited the communities and selected persons who will assist in this survey through this section. Mrs. Ran Hellwig has been appointed from Mongold, Mrs. Earl Parker and Mrs. Otis White from Detroit, Mrs. Lavelle Haseman and Miss Kazi Inuzuko from Idanha.

Every tenth family in these sections will be contacted in the next two weeks merely for statistical purposes on health, that is status of health, number of diseases in the family, insurance coverage, hospitalization, dentist and doctor appointments. This data is purely confidential as the name of the person being contacted is not listed, nor is there any record what-so-ever which could connect Springview and Ainsworth, Nebraska. Mrs. Haun's father, L. L. Larson, who had visited at the Haun home for some time, remained in Nebraska, his home. They reported very little trouble enroute; the pavements free from snow and ice in most places. The worst stretch of road, the state, was encountered in Idaho and Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison were dinner guests in Salem, Saturday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Robinson. Other guests there, were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ritchie of Salem. The occasion was in compliment to Mr. and Mrs. Rush Robinson, whose birthday anniversaries fall within a few days of each other. The dinner is an annual affair.

Mrs. Glen Henness was hostess at dinner Sunday, at her home - complimenting Thurlo Cole, who is home on leave from Japan and Korea. Places at the table were laid for the honored guest, Thurlo, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burrell Cole and son, Marlin, Mrs. Minnie Everton, Mr. and Mrs. Henness and son Earle.

Monday of this week Mrs. Glen Henness, Mrs. Burrell Cole, Mrs. Minnie Everton and Mrs. Clarence Rush drove to Dallas to spend the day at the home of Mrs. Henness's mother, Mrs. Roy Taylor, whose birthday anniversary fell on that day.

Mrs. George Clise has been in Los Angeles and vicinity for the past week on a combined business and pleasure trip. Los Angeles was the former home of Mr. and Mrs. Clise.

person contacted with the report. Mrs. Joe Leis received word of the death of her sister Mrs. Laudie Hasbrook who passed away at her home in Portland on Jan. 14. Mrs. Hasbrook suffered a stroke some months ago and contracted pneumonia which was the cause of her death. She will be buried in Hood River where she lived a number of years ago being the widow of Judge Hasbrook of Hood River. Mrs. Leis left for Portland on Tuesday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Rynearson and daughter Susie spent Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week in Portland where Susie has been having some dental work done.

The Detroit-Idanha school board approved the erection of and purchased materials for two yard lights which will be placed at the grade school building soon. One will be placed in front of the gymnasium the other at the main entrance of the grade school. These large reflectors will accommodate 500 watt bulbs, and will be installed by Marion Kite, private contractor.

The Detroit Woman's Civic meeting for this month has been cancelled due to hazardous driving conditions. The members will be notified of the next meeting time.

Mr. and Mrs. Nolan Rasnick spent the Christmas holidays in Portland visiting relatives. Nolan's sisters live there also Mrs. Rasnick's son by a former marriage, Tom Griffin. While there, they attended the wedding on the 26th of Nolan's niece, Miss Beverly Anne Bents.

Stayton town team were victors over Detroit town team on Monday night of this week, in a game played in the Detroit gymnasium. The score stood 60-30.

Virginia White is spending a couple of weeks with her parents the Pat O'Briens of Detroit.

Detroit high school basketball team traveled to Sisters on Tuesday evening for a non conference game. There was no rooting section for Detroit since the other members of the student body did not accompany them. The score was 60-36 in favor of Detroit. The next game on Friday evening will be a double header with St. Paul held in the Detroit gymnasium.

The North Santiam Woman's club will meet today with Mrs. George Barney for election of officers. The women have completed three comforters for the Korean children on "Little Orphan Island" and these will be sent at once. A handkerchief shower will be held today for Mrs. George Barney who has been very active in the club work and who is moving to Eastern Oregon.

Mrs. Ran Helwig is giving a shower honoring Mrs. Ned Warner this week at her home in Mongold.

The Mongold Sunday school has voted to discontinue their services held there in the Hut and will bring those who wish to come to the Detroit Sunday school. Mrs. K. F. Ramsey has been superintendent there. The Detroit Sunday school decided on Oct.

1st, to purchase a goat for the Korean orphans and have collected to date, entirely through uncollected offerings $46. To each child giving as much as a dollar, a prize has been given. Children winning prizes so far are: Suzanne Moore, Bobby Moore, Michael Moore, Elaine and Fritz Morrison, Richard Rice each giving a dollar; Lauralee O'Brien, two dollars and Russel Rice has given three dollars. The class having the largest amount contributed will have the privilege of naming the goat. The classes stand at present: Mrs. Helen Baughn's intermediates, eleven dollars; Mrs. Alice Moore's juniors, eleven dollars; Mrs. Sophy's primary class has five dollars, and Mrs. Nobles beginners have nine dollars. Next Sunday will wind up the offerings and there will be considerable competition for naming the goat. The senior class has given ten dollars.
