My thought of the week dedicated to our boys: As every one of our boys go so bravely to fight the foe, let all of us here at home thank God that we have produced these boys and have taught them that they shall not die in vain. Let us pray. Oh! Lord Take them safely to the fold, let not their faith falter ever, until every acre's sore is wiped from the face of the earth.

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh
Ed Got Red In His Own "Hot Water"
Big Ed started a "Pay-Your-Bill" campaign last week and ended up with a slightly red face. Ed's been our Water Commissioner for ten years, and for ten years now he's been getting filled up over slow payments of bills.
So, he finally decided to do something drastic about it. Last week he sent notices that if the slackers didn't pay up by Friday, he'd shut off their water.
Naturally, some still didn't square accounts. Ed ordered their water turned off, and 14 homes went without all week end—the Commissioner's among them. Seems Ed forgot to pay his bill.
From where I sit, Ed's mistake is one we all make at times. We are too quick to accuse others while forgetting our own faults. Lots of us do it, for instance, ever a difference in taste for a soft drink or a friendly glass of beer. Let's respect each other's preferences and we'll all stay out of "hot water."
