O.P.S. Food Branch Help Available February 5

Simon C. Berry of the Portland OPS food branch, will be in Salem, Tuesday, February 5, from 1:00 to 5:00 p.m., at the Chamber of Commerce to give personal help to restaurant operators, proprietors of taverns and night clubs and all those covered by CPR 11. Many are long overdue in filing their OPS reports, he advises. Others, who have already filed, may have questions. The Clinic will serve all of Marion county.

Arrangements for this Clinic were made with the assistance of Clay Cochran, Manager of the Salem Chamber of Commerce.

GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP

The Gates home extension unit met in an all day session the last of the week, in the recreation rooms of the high school. Project leaders from the Mehama unit, Mrs. Elmer Taylor and Mrs. Earle Wolfkeil were present and demonstrated the repair of inner spring cushions. A no-host luncheon was served at noon. The next meeting of the Gates group will be held at the school house, Tuesday, February 12. Mrs. Glenn Henness and Mrs. Burrel Cole, project leaders will explain how to make ready mixes at home. Those present at the last meeting were Mrs. Wolfkeil and Mrs. Taylor from Mehama, Mrs. Elmer Klutke, Mrs. Glen Henness, Mrs. Elmer Stewart, Mrs. Norman Carrison, Mrs.

Floyd Volkel, Mrs. Glen Henness, Mrs. Gerald Garrison, and Mrs. Clarence Rush.

Portland guests at the home of Mrs. Gerald Garrison over Sunday were Mrs. Garrison's brothers and families, Mr. and Mrs. William Mitchel and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Mitchel and daughter.

Over the weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush were Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Rush and daughter, of Salem. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Garrison were Saturday evening dinner guests at the Rush home.

Mr. and Mrs. George Meilke and daughter spent the weekend in Walport at the home of her sister and family Mr. and Mrs. Keith Taylor. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Millsap and son Robert of Portland visited at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap over the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Cole and two children of Netarts were at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Burrel Cole over the weekend. Saturday was spent in Salem where RM3 Thurlo Cole entrained for San Diego, Calif. where he will be stationed until April before being shipped out. He had spent a thirty day leave at home following eighteen months in Japan and Korea.

Bill Haverson, Bob Lee and Marlin Cole drove to Portland Sunday to see the Globe Trotter's basket ball game. The boys are all members of the Gates high school team.

Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Turnidge and daughter Carolyn from Cutler City were over the weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chris Knutson. Their daughter, Carolyn remained in Gates at her grandparents home and will attend the local high school where she will be a member of the senior class.

Fox Valley

MRS. J. H. JOHNSTON

The Santiam Chapel revival services will close this week. Special music and song services are scheduled for the Saturday evening meeting, which starts promptly at 7:30 p.m. Rev. Ferris Dodd is the evangelist. There has been a good attendance, considering the stormy weather, have come out for the worth while services of the past two weeks.

Grade school children in this locality had a four days vacation, caused by the furnace exploding early Tuesday morning of last week. It was repaired and school opened Monday of this week.

Word received here from Lebanon stated, Mr. Amos Hiatt is ill at the home of his daughter, the Leonard Thomas' in Lebanon. Mr. and Mrs. Hiatt were visiting at their daughter's when he became ill to return to their home on Lyons Rt. 1. Their son, Percy Hiatt, and brothers, Elmer and Charley Hiatt, went to Lebanon Saturday to see how Mr. Hiatt is getting along.

A young man, Mr. Kays just recently coming here from Montana was seriously injured on his first day at work as highclimber at the Detroit dam. The family with Mrs. Kays parents and family live at the Stockwell house in Fox Valley. They just moved in late Saturday and he began working at Detroit Thursday. Mr. Kays is reported as slightly improved the last two days.

Mrs. J. F. Potter of Mill City was a Wednesday afternoon caller at Mrs. Jack Johnston's. Mrs. Potter also called on Eugenia Tenney Wednesday.
