The Gates Home Extension unit will meet in an all day session, Tuesday, Feb. 12, at the home of Mrs. Joe Joaquin. The meeting will start at 10:30 a.m. Project leaders Mrs. Glen Henness and Mrs. Burrel Cole will demonstrate ready mixes-home made. Anyone interested is welcome to attend. The president of the unit, Mrs. Floyd Volkel, is requesting that those attending bring a portion of their favorite salad, this to be served at luncheon with hot rolls, made by the project leaders from the ready mix just demonstrated. According to the February news letters, members of the county and alumni committees to visit this meeting.

One of the pleasantest affairs of the season was a surprise housewarming and post-nuptial shower honoring Mrs. Collis Heath (Frances Young) at her home Wednesday evening of last week. Mrs. Harold Wilson and Mrs. Elmer Stewart were hostesses and had invited many of Mrs. Heath's former school mates and friends. Games and the opening of the many lovely gifts provided entertainment for the evening. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Wilson and Mrs. Stewart to the honored guest, Mrs. Heath, her mother, Mrs.

The American Legion Auxiliary will meet with Mrs. Myrtle Gestson, Tuesday evening of this week despite the snow. The March of Dimes benefit show, "Angels in the Outfield" presented last Saturday evening brought better than sixty dollars for the foundation.

James Jennings was taken to the Salem General, Monday night of last week where he underwent surgery for the removal of a blood clot from his brain. Jennings was brought home Monday evening of this week. He will be under the doctor's care for sometime. He works for the state highway department and operates the snow plow.

Mrs. Fannie Noble is spending a few days with her daughter and family the Clarence Baldwin family of Stayton. She left Saturday afternoon and will return home Wednesday afternoon.

Marlene White spent the week-end visiting with her parents of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Johnson and daughter, Carol of Portland, spent the week-end with his parents, the Ray Johnsons here a week ago.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Boyle and family spent the weekend in Corvallis where he attended the Elementary Principal's conference held in the high school there. While in Corvallis they visited with Mrs. Boyle's brother and wife the Charles E. Daltons.

Mrs. Boyle's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fletcher who had been visiting in Corvallis returned home with them Sunday evening. They will remain until Tuesday when they will return to their home in Seattle.

An election was held at the Detroit high school on Monday evening of this week to vote on the question; shall the high school be discontinued and the pupils transported to Mill City. Votes for discontinuing and transporting to Mill City were 30, votes opposed to discontinuing the school here were 97.

Officers elected for the Canyon Aid at its last meeting of Jan. 24, were Henry Hiebert, president; Bob Unger, vice president; Frank New, treasurer and Rhea Snyder, secretary. These new officers have not acted officially as yet as the report for the year 1951 has not yet been made. Following the election each organization in the community will select a representative to meet with these officers. It is this nucleus which forms the Canyon Aid.

David, the small son of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley White, was hurried to the doctor on Monday morning following a spasms. He went into a coma which lasted until he reached Mill City. When he awoke, he was sick to his stomach. He has been having penicillin shots for a lymph gland enlargement on his neck.

DE-HI News

By ALICE FRYER

The G.A.A. gave a banquet for all the fathers of the students on January 31. The cooking activities started during the home economics classes and continued throughout the day. Many appetizing dishes were served including spaghetti, scalloped potatoes, Boston baked beans, fruit cobbler and others. Eating by candlelight, the meal was thoroughly enjoyed by everyone.

Before dinner, the fathers tried to identify their daughters by a row of ankles and shoes displayed by the wearer of the shoe. The one they chose was their daughter for the evening.

After the dinner, entertainment was provided when everyone had to do a stunt which they had drawn out of a red heart shaped box. Fathers, daughters, and faculty members all took part in the entertainment wholeheartedly.

Tuesday evening, February 5, special entertainment was on hand at the Detroit gymnasium. The "Roamer Girls" played a basketball game with the high school varsity team. During the halftime a special program was presented by the girls. The profit Detroit high made went to the March of Dimes fund.
