Seeger-Pietrok Wed St. Patrick's Church

Lyons—A very pretty late winter wedding was held Monday morning in Lyons, February 25 at 11 o'clock, at the St. Patrick's Catholic church when Miss Lois Genevieve Seeger daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Al Seeger of Mehama, became the bride of Louis Thomas Pietrok, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Pietrok of Lyons. The altar was decorated with pink stock, snapdragons and yellow daffodils.

Rev. Fr. Leander Schneider officiated. The bride wore a white satin gown with finger tip veil held in place with a tiara of spring flowers, and carried pink rosebuds and stepnotis. Bridesmaids were Virginia Porter, cousin of the bride and Virginia Rogers, sister of the bride, who wore floor length dresses of blue and rose and carried yellow rose buds. Groomsmen were Clarence Pietrok, brother of the groom and Ted Rogers, brother-in-law of the bride. The wedding music was played by Miss Josephine Brand of Stayton and Mrs. Laurance Pietrok did the singing.

After the ceremony, the young couple greeted their friends at a reception held at the Rebekah hall, Mrs. Glen Rogers cut the wedding cake, and Miss Mary Pietrok, sister of the groom did the pouring. Presiding at the gift table were Ruth Clayson, Louise and Frances Pietrok.

For going away the bride chose a wine colored suit with white accessories and wore an orchid corsage.

Mrs. Joan Long Lucky Twelve Card Hostess

One pursuit that continued on its merry way despite the "flying saucer" over the Gates area was pinocle play by the Gates Lucky Twelve players.

Mrs. Rosella Haywood in her own way zoomed to "flying saucer heights" by copping high prize. Mrs. Bea Graunke at the end of the pinocle play discovered that she had piloted a course that netted her the willow-o'-the-wist pinocle prize. Mrs. Violet Keen kept her feet on the ground, and went away with the pay-off low prize.

Mrs. Joan Long, sky-day, Gates Lucky Twelve hostess, created and served a tasty pineapple-cottage cheese salad for the traditional pinocle luncheon.
