Knowledge is Power

1. ARE YOU HAVING ENOUGH FUN?
 2. CAN YOU QUALIFY AS A JET PILOT?
 3. CAN OUR WESTERN WORLD AND THE COMMUNIST WORLD LIVE AT PEACE?

(1) You are if four factors in your life are balanced. These, says "This Week" magazine, are worship (devotion), play, work and love. For many persons the missing ingredient is play. Most people enjoy social visits, achieving sible, as I see it," says Arnold Toynbee, the famed historian, in a BBC broadcast reproduced in the "Catholic Digest." "I see this possibility," continues Toynbee, "in the light of another historical precedent. I am thinking of the one world, stretching from Britain to India, which resulted from expansion of the ancient Greek civilization in and after the time of Alexander the Great. For seven centuries, from the last century B. C. to the seventh century of the Christian era, that ancient world was partitioned between a Western and an Eastern power: the Roman empire in the West and a rival Oriental empire in Persia."

GATES

By MRS. ALBERT MILLSAP

Mrs. Martha Bowes was hostess at her home, Saturday afternoon to members of the Gates Birthday club. Following the luncheon, served by the hostess at one o'clock, euchre was in play for the remainder of the afternoon. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. Robert Levon, Mrs. Clarence Johnson and Mrs. Arnold Syverson. Others present were Mrs. Lula Collins, Mrs. Walter Brisbin, Mrs. Floyd Bassett, and special guests, Mrs. Alta Leedy and Mrs. Oscar Osterhout.

Mrs. Elmer Stewart, daughter Connie and Mrs. Gerald Heath were Salem visitors Saturday.

Mrs. Glen Hearing complimented her daughter, Sharron on her eighth birthday anniversary, Saturday afternoon at her home. Party games and the opening of the gifts provided amusement for the young guests before the lighted birthday cake and other refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Hearing, to the guest of honor, Sharron, her brother, Jimmy, Marcia Barnhardt, Cheryl and Sharron Hirte, Susan Ryan, Cheryl Evans, Barbara Hirte, Sherry Shiner and Darlene Joaquin.

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Barnhardt from Wednesday until Saturday last week were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Barnhardt of Richland, Wash. Friday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Barnhardt, Marcia and their guests had dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. David Barnhardt in Niagara.

Mr. and Mrs. Tex Allen had as their guest last week, an old time friend Phil Green and "Blondie" from Seattle.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Gessner left Saturday for San Francisco where they planned to visit relatives for a week.

Mrs. Gwen Schaefer and son Rodney, accompanied by Miss Elizabeth Thompson spent Saturday in Salem. Miss Thompson of Lebanon is making an extended visit at the Schaefer home.

Mrs. Lillie Lake has been quite ill and confined to her bed at home with the flu for almost three weeks. Mrs. Marshall Lake, her grand-daughter-in-law, who is caring for Mrs. Lake reports that she is some better, but still not able to be up and around.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rush attended a basket ball game in Corvallis Saturday night and visited their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. William Rush at their home there.

Gates was well represented in Salem Monday. Among those driving down were Mrs. Floyd Volkel, Mrs. W. S. Hudson, Mrs. George Arthurs and Jerry Larson. Mrs. Gerald Garrison and son Larry and Mrs. Norman Garrison were also Salem visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Millsap joined their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Klecker in Stayton early Sunday morning and accompanied them, their daughter Janet, Kristine and son Jeffrey to Portland where they spent the day at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Millsap. Upon the return trip they visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dorland Swan (Carol Klecker) at their home in Salem.

The dance sponsored by the local volunteer fire department, held in the high school gymnasium Saturday night was well attended considering
