land, Silverton, Woodburn, Mt. Angel, Estacada, Stayton, and Lebanon, and before the summer is over the number will double that, the statement of the editor, that business will be forced out because of excessive taxes to support a school is far-fetched, as there will be very little difference if any.

With one parting shot at this foolish situation, I can not see how any parent knowing the potential dangers of transporting their children twenty to thirty-five miles twice a day, five days a week with all kinds of drivers in all kinds of weather can afford to take the risk, it just isn't good sense or good business.—Sincerely,

Dear Mr. Peterson:
Your column in last weeks issue (March 6) concerning the doings at city council rather amazed and amused me.

Hooray for Mr. Steffy and the interested citizens who like him want the city charter amended, so the taxpayers within the city limits have some voice in our city government.

It amused me to note the council gave Patrolman Breneman a raise in pay, do they think that will compensate for the long hours and strain this inexperienced man will be under? Little do they realize what a man working under those conditions gives up, to please the city council. God grant his wife the Patience of Job, for she will need it. She won't have a husband long, but be married to a piece of human machinery.

I speak from experience, I know what it did to my husband when he worked alone and he had had 14 months with the department too. What do they expect of a man with only 3 months experience? The problems that come before the police department are numerous and varied, and unless Mr. Breneman is superman he won't stand the strain long before it will show in his disposition and working ability.

Let me tell you it is really nice to have a chance to get acquainted with my husband again after two years of having to play second fiddle to the city populace and their problems.

By the way you said the city council accepted a verbal resignation from Chief of Police Hunt. What happened to the written one he presented to the police commissioner a few days before council meeting? Let me tell you, the lone councilman who objected to the way it was worded perhaps has had more experience writing out resignations, or does the man have a conscience that is bothering him, it makes us wonder.

DOROTHY HUNT
Alex Kuiken, Clyde Bressler, Rinke Feenstra, George Huffman, Percy Hiatt, Mike Fink, and the hostess Mrs. Bassett and Mrs. Johnson.

Glen Julian underwent a knee operation at the Salem Memorial hospital Thursday. He will remain in the hospital for several days.
