Mrs. Blazek Entertains Lucky Twelve Card Club

It is obvious that Mrs. Doreen Fowler did not give up for Lent the will which makes winning possible. Mrs. Fowler sat down resolutely and on high during Thursday's session of Gates Lucky Twelve pinochle club.

Mrs. Marcie Peterson somehow did it again—won the pinochle prize twice running. Mrs. Rosella Haywood chugged home with the low prize.

Thursday's pinochle meet was under the capable supervision of hostess Mrs. "Toots" Blazek in her home. Dessert luncheon for the twelve Lucky ladies was jello whipped cream salad.

Noon Luncheon Honors Mrs. Duffy, Mrs. Bassett

Mrs. Bertha Baltimore entertained in her home Monday noon with a birthday luncheon honoring Mrs. Eva Duffy and Mrs. Julia Bassett.

Those present were Mrs. Chrissie Henderson, Mrs. Blanche Syverson, Mrs. Ruby Brisbin, Mrs. Pat Wingo, Mrs. Goldie Rambo, and Mrs. Alma Thomas.

Womans Club Honors Out-of-Town Guests

Mill City Woman's club Tuesday evening served another of their famous dinners. Honored guests for the dinner in the Mill City Presbyterian recreation hall were Judge and Mrs. Joseph Felton, Sheriff and Mrs. Denver Young, and Mrs. R. W. Land of Salem.

Judge Felton, judge of the circuit court of Marion county, department of domestic relations, gave an interesting talk on the care of delinquent boys and girls of Marion county. Felton spoke convincingly in behalf of a building where these delinquents can be taken for care. Felton expressed the hope that provision for such a structure can come about by the vote of the people in the next election.

Miss Ardith Jones and David Keyes each played a piano solo for the entertainment of some sixty club members and their guests.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Henderson and Charles spent the weekend visiting with their daughter and family Mr. and Mrs. Frank Nichols in eastern Oregon.

Piano Students Presented In Recital At Stayton

St. Mary's school gym, Stayton, was the scene of an entertaining senior student piano recital, Sunday evening, March 23, by students of the Sisters of St. Mary's. Miss Diane Peterson and Ray Steiner were the senior student pianists from the Mill City area.

Steiner played "American Patrol" by Meacham, and Miss Peterson, "Hungarian Rhapsody" by Liszt. The Mill City piano students appeared on a program which featured some 23 piano selections and several recitations, special dances and group singing.

The preceding Friday night a recital of the beginner student pianists was held in the St. Mary's school gym. Those from Mill City in this recital were Georgia Kandler, Sylvia Peterson, Lynn and Dee Anna Steiner.

Detroit High School held a banquet for the coaches and principals of the "B" League, Monday evening, March twenty-fourth. The banquet was one of a series given by the different high schools for the coaches. The dinner was prepared and by the second year home economics class. The coaches held a business meeting following the dinner.

An assembly was held on March twenty-fifth to award the basketball letters. Mr. Whipple, the coach, presented letters to the following boys: Bob Layman, three year letterman; Bill Palmer and Dick Woodward two year letterman; James White, Raymond Wallace, Don Ketchum, Jules Hill, Roy Getz, Kenneth Nygard and Gerald Vickers, one year lettermen in basketball. Frankie Barton, manager, also received a letter.

Clyde E. Rogers Enjoys Birthday Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde E. Rogers of Eugene visited his parents on the occasion of his father's birthday, March 16. The following Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bertilson of Oregon City and Miss Sally Wambaugh of Portland also visited their father. Sally spent the remainder of the week with her grandparents.

Last weekend Sally's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Troy Wambaugh and family of Portland, visited Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Rogers and took their daughter, Sally, home with them.

These visits were much enjoyed by Mr. Rogers, since he has been confined to his home by a broken leg, and does not get out much. Mrs. Bertilson and Mrs. Wambaugh are daughters of Rogers.

Walter Kay. They were accompanied by Mrs. Kay's mother, Mrs. Ethel Brosig of Silverton.

Mrs. Leo Heath is ill this week with the flu.

Beginners Dancing Class Starts Sat.

Miss Josephine Singer announced this week that a new beginners' tap-dancing class starts Saturday, March 29, at 2:30 p.m. in the Mill City fire hall.

Miss Singer stated, "If your child is four years of age or older, we can develop its rhythm, coordination, poise, balance and self-confidence to a very apparent degree—very quickly with the Paul Armstrong school of dancing technique, which will be personally directed by me. Enroll and begin lessons this Saturday at 2:30. We will have your youngster in a stage revue within a few months."

Miss Singer said, "A civic-minded group of mothers from this community insisted upon a dancing school as a branch from our large dancing organization, which was organized and started last spring in this community. Since that time the Paul Armstrong school of dancing has developed many outstanding dancers from three years of age on up."

Miss Singer continued, "We have been so pleased in the spirit of co-operation and enthusiasm shown in our school, that we are looking forward to the coming stage revue. With our training we develop the personality, grace, charm and rhythm that is inherent in every child." By popular request we are adding another class to our school which will begin this coming Saturday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. at the Fire hall."

Well-Child Conference Examines 24 Children

Twenty-four children were examined at the Well-Child Conference held in Mill City on March 18. Dr. W. J. Stone, of the Marion County Health Department, was the attending physician, assisted by Mrs. Etta Mae Detering and Miss Marion Uhden, public health nurses from Marion and Linn counties.

Volunteer assistants for the day were: Mrs. Jim O'Leary and Mrs. French of Mill City, Mrs. R. C. Haseman of Idanha and Mrs. Kenneth Martig of Gates.

The next conference in Mill City will be held on May 20.
