Palmer House Echoes In Speech Club Work

Mrs. Vincent Palmer's home housed the March meet of the Mill City Toast-mistress club. In view of the fact that Mrs. W. D. Hutcheson was table topic mistress for the meeting, Mrs. D. W. Milley presided over the meeting.

Mrs. Hutcheson's subject was "Gardens". Reportedly many very fine speeches were inspired by this topic. Mrs. L. C. Hathaway made the invocation. Toastmistress of the evening was Mrs. Kenneth Crosier; timer, Mrs. James O'Leary, and evaluator, Mrs. June Milley.

Speakers were Mrs. Lee Pinkston, "The Idea of March"; Mrs. Parker Savage, "Cerebral Palsy"; and Mrs. Robert Wingo, "How to Make a Motion".

Club guests were Mrs. Irene Steffy, Mrs. Noble Streeter, Mrs. Howard Means and Mrs. Bobby Yates. Next meeting date is April 10.

Assignment of duties for the Thursday session include, Mrs. Wingo, invoker; Mrs. Lee Ross, toastmistress; Mrs. Elsie Potter, evaluator; Miss Frieda Thayer, lexicologist; Mrs. L. G. Hathaway, timer; speakers, Mrs. Floyd Jones, Mrs. D. W. Milley, Miss Frieda Thayer; critics, Mrs. James O'Leary, Mrs. Vincent Palmer and Mrs. Lee Pinkston.

Santiam Valley Grange Entertains Visitors

Lyons — The regular meeting of Santiam Valley grange was held Friday evening at the grange hall with a very pleasant evening reported by all. The regular routine of business was carried out, and state officers voted on. They also will receive the pennant for having 100 percent on their 1952 dues paid. At the next meeting visitors will be present from the Crowfoot lodge, and plans were made for Santiam valley to visit Western Star the second Saturday in May, which will be the 10th. Twenty members were present from Scio who came as a surprise and presented them the Traveling Gavel, which was presented in a beautiful ceremony by the master, Mr. Ronner, in honor of Charles E. Spence who was master of the state grange from 1910 to 1923.

At the lecturers hour much fun was enjoyed, Jerry Coffman presented the picture "When Grandma Goes to School," and Mr. and Mrs. Hampton showed two pictures from South America, which were taken by their son who is there, Susan Coffman played a piano solo, and Jean Hampton sang a vocal solo. The men also paraded with their loud neck ties. With Jake Myers and Robert Draper taking a prize. At the next meeting the men folks are to bring their hobby. If it is too large to bring they are requested to bring a picture.

Lt. Mineo Inuzuka Delight Detroiters

Detroit high school students were delighted with the news over radio and through newspapers that Lt. Mineo Inuzuka, brother of their high school teacher, Miss Kazi Inuzuka, had received additional honors in Korea. The Distinguished Service cross and the Distinguished Flying cross recently were awarded to him for exceptional courage and leadership under fire.

Lt. Inuzuka, who also fought in Italy during World War II, already holds the Bronze Star medal, Silver Star, combat infantryman's badge two air medals, the Korean service medal with five stars and the Purple Heart.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Takashi Inuzuka, live at 3705 SE. 63d Avenue, Portland.

Lyon Methodists to Enjoy Organ Music

Lyons Community Methodist church to feature a Hammond organ Sunday morning. "The Stone Rolled Away" will be the Easter theme of message given next Sunday at the 11 a.m. hour by Rev. Rinke A. Feenstra of the Lyons Methodist church.

"He Lives" will be the theme of the Sunday school program beginning at 10 o'clock. Members and friends of the Sunday school will enjoy this program in which all ages will participate.

A unique feature of the worship service will be music played by Don Worden of the Stone Music Co. of Salem. He will use the Hammond organ donated for the occasion by Mr. and Mrs. Russell Thiel of Lyons. There will be a prelude of Easter music beginning at 10:45. There will be Good Friday Communion service held at the church Friday evening. Every one invited to attend.

Home Extension Unit Holds All-Day Session

The Gates Home Extension unit met Thursday, April 3, in an all day session at the home of Mrs. Elmer Klutke. Mrs. Marjory White, home demonstration agent, from Salem, was present and made many good suggestions for kitchen storage. A sack lunch, augmented by coffee and salad, served by the hostess Mrs. Klutke was enjoyed at the noon hour.

Glove making will be the project for the next meeting, May 13, with Mrs. Klutke as project leader. The Spring Festival, to be held at the Salem senior high school April 26 was discussed. The Gates unit will have as the subject of their display, "Color in the Home." Those present Thursday were Mrs. Floyd Volkel, Mrs. Clarence Rush, Mrs. Glen Henness, Mrs. Burrell Cole, Mrs. White and the hostess Mrs. Klutke.

Rev. Noble Streeter Assumes Pastorate

Rev. Noble M. Streeter, in accord with the rites of the Presbytery of Willamette, became the pastor of the Mill City Presbyterian church, Sunday afternoon, April 6. Rev. Charles Barnes served as vice moderator.

Rev. Morton Booth, pastor of the Albany Presbyterian church, gave the sermon. Prayer of Ordination and installation was spoken by Reverend Barnes, pastor of the McMinnville church. Present in the large audience were Stayton and Mehama visitors.

Rev. Robert Bulkley, pastor of Federated churches of Corvallis, invested Reverend Streeter with the responsibilities of the pastorate of the Mill City church. A charge to the people was issued by Rev. John Hood, pastor of the Independence Calvary Presbyterian church.

The Mill City Presbyterian church choir, Mrs. Doris Sheythe and Mrs. Edna Ross furnished the music for the ceremonies. Rev. Burnett Holland, assistant pastor of the First Presbyterian church of Salem, read the Scripture and Prayer.

After the installation rites, the Mill City church officers and their wives served a dinner to the visiting pastors and their families in the church's recreation hall.
