Mill City Rebekahs Visit Stayton Lodge

Several members of Santiam Rebekah Lodge No. 166 of Mill City visited Eva Rebekah Lodge No. 92 at Stayton, Tuesday evening. Invitations had been sent to all Rebekah lodges in this district to attend Stayton lodge on their Guest night.

The initiatory degree was conferred upon one candidate, followed by a lovely drill. Mrs. C. F. Deetz, noble grand was in charge of the degree work and Mrs. Beulah Lessard is drill captain.

Mrs. Marcele Ware, district chairman for 1952, announced that district convention will be held in Stayton, June 10, when Mrs. Olive Ramey, assembly president will pay Eva Rebekah lodge an official visit.

Following lodge a cake walk was held, the proceeds from which will be added to a fund which is being raised to send some Stayton high school youth to visit the United Nations.

Delicious refreshments were served in the lodge dining rooms following the cake walk.

Members visiting from Mill City were: Julia Bassett, Ada Plymale, Rachel Olmstead, Ida Fleetwood, Dora Findley, Dorothy Vail and Ruth Hess. There were also visiting members from Turner, Jefferson, and Lyons.

Legion Auxiliary Party Successful

Mill City American Legion Auxiliary sponsored a card party at the Legion hall last Saturday evening. Proceeds of the party will be applied to equipping the Legion hall kitchen. Mrs. Dolores Stewart had charge of the card fete.

High score for pinochle was won by John Swan; low, Russell Moberg. High scorer in bridge was Mrs. Catherine Ferguson; low, Mary Jane Cox. High score in canasta was made by "Dub" Stewart; low, Grace Hudson of Gates. The door prize was won by Ethel Foster. Mrs. Stewart expressed thanks to all who purchased tickets.

The regular session of the Auxiliary took place Monday evening. Mrs. Cecyl Lucht, district president, from Mt. Angel, was scheduled as the distinguished guest, but last minute illness prevented her attending. A nice representation from the Detroit-Idanha area drove to Mill City for the regular meeting. Mrs. Pauline Hunt, a new member of the Auxiliary, was introduced to the unit.

The names of three Mill City high school junior girls were submitted as candidates for Girls State. These names were sent to the Mill City Garden club and Eagles auxiliary for approval. These two clubs have decided that they will sponsor a girl from Mill City this year to Girls State. The name of this girl will be announced within a short time.

The local Legion Auxiliary plan a rummage and white elephant sale in the near future. Anyone having such articles call 2096, Ruth Stovall. Word also can be left at Muir's bakery. Lee Kelly won the attendance prize for last month.

Mrs. Bertha Vanderhoff Entertains at Pinochle

Gates Lucky Twelve pinochle club celebrated the post-Easter season by thoroughly enjoying a dessert luncheon of chocolate ice cream rolls served in the finest tradition by hostess Mrs. Bertha Vanderhoff.

Mrs. Rosella Haywood bested her sister players for first prize. Mrs. Thelma Otto positioned herself firmly upon the pinochle prize. Mrs. Marcie Peterson, obviously in poor form for the day's play, scored low. Mrs. Edna McCreary and Mrs. Edna Duvall distinguished themselves brightly by unfolding 1500 in trumps.

Mill City Grade School NEWS

Boy Scout News
The Mill City Boy Scouts had a good time at the Camporee last Saturday and Sunday. We left Mill City at about 8:30. Mr. Tuers drove us up and back in his panel truck.

Unfortunately there was not an awful lot of sleeping done, they did not blow reveille because everyone was up. At the camp fire the troops put on skit.

The Boy Scouts held their regular meeting Wednesday night at the high school recreation room.

We had patrol meetings then we held our business meeting. We talked about the Camporee. First Bruce Thomas talked, then Tony Boothby, Terry Muir, David Jones, and Lahny Podrabsky. After the meeting we watched the baseball game.

Mill City Friends Call On Vaughans at Lebanon

Four car-loads of Christian church folks took their basket dinners and surprised the Joe Vaughan family at Lebanon Sunday. The Vaughans moved to Lebanon in March from their home just west of Mill City.

Present at the dinner from Mill City were the Eldon Hutchinson family, Mrs. Susie Haynes, the Elmer Shaw family, the H. E. Jull family, Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Plymale, Mrs. Emma Teter, Mrs. Leora Caraway, Mrs. Una Mae White, Mrs. Rose Daly, Geo. Ditto, Ellen Shelton and David Golden.

A picture was presented to the Vaughans in appreciation for their interest in and service for the church during their stay in Mill City.
