of the impending need for replacements in Cub Pack leadership. Anyone interested should contact the present Cub Pack committeemen and committeewomen.

Steiner stressed the fact that a better, more complete and well-rounded program can be carried on by future leaders now taking part in committee activities which do not require a great amount of time.

Fox Valley

MRS. J. H. JOHNSTON

Mr. and Mrs. Ben McCall and two small children have rented the Glip-fell house and moved in last week.

Mrs. Charles Power and little son came home from Glendale, Calif., last week. Her father, who was ill seems to have improved to some extent.

Graveside services Wednesday April 23 at 2 p.m. for William Erwin of Portland will be held at Fox Valley cemetery with interment in the family plot. The Erwin family were residents of Fox Valley some years ago. They lived on the farm by the cemetery, now owned by George Nydegger. His widow, Ida Erwin, one daughter, a sister, Mattie Bruce, of Salem, and many other relatives survive.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Trask and family are moving to Albany very soon and will occupy the property of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Walkup who bought the variety store here a few months ago. Mr. Trask is employed by the M & M company at Sweet Home.
