Mrs. Fowler Entertains Gates Lucky Twelves

Mrs. Doreen Fowler stuck to the tried and true in desserts for her offering to Gates Lucky Twelve pinochlers Thursday afternoon—apple pie and ice cream.

Mrs. Edna Duvall fared well indeed upon the bill-of-fare as attest her winning of first prize and holding 1000 aces. Mrs. Rosalie Haywood exhibited powers of the occult and mystic by coaxing the pinochle prize to her home base. Mrs. Lila Bushnell sheepishly told husband about the "booby" prize she got.

A personal letter of an ardent Lucky member, Mrs. Marvin Keen, was read to the group. The Keens have moved to Portland. Guest player was Mrs. Margaret Clise.

Star Recipes

As Told to Betsy Blake

BOB HOPE is the country's leading expert on pies. He's had more pies thrown at him than any other comedian, and he's tasted them all—while wiping them off his chin. Bob, who is soon to be seen in Paramount's "My Favorite Spy" has a favorite pie—vanilla custard. It's a delicious pastry and economical too. "Make one," suggests Bob, "And try it on your husband." Serve it, of course. Don't throw it! Here's the recipe:

VANILLA CUSTARD PIE

Plain pastry 3 eggs, slightly beaten 1/2 cup granulated sugar 1/2 teaspoon salt 3 cups bottled milk 2 teaspoons Burnell's Pure Vanilla

Roll the pie crust to 1/4-inch thickness and 2 inches larger than the diameter of the plate. Line a 9-inch pie plate with this pie crust, fitting it loosely. Fold back the edge of the pie crust all the way around and bring this double fold to an upright position. Flute the double fold of pie crust in the following manner: Place the floured tip or knuckle of the index finger of the right hand against the fold on the inside of the pie crust rim, so that it is between the tips of the thumb and index finger of the left hand, which are on the outside of the pie crust rim. Pinch gently, then remove the fingers and continue this same fluting motion around the entire rim of the pie.

Combine the eggs, sugar and salt. Add the milk and vanilla, and pour into the pastry shell. Bake at 450° F. in a preheated oven for 30 to 40 minutes or until a silver knife inserted in the center comes out clean.

Lunch for the Ball Team

A current weather forecast might read... "Warm, spring day, followed by small boys playing baseball." Mothers know that baseball players have big appetites and need a healthful lunch to restore lost energy. When your young sportsmen come home hungry from a ball game, serve them a wholesome, nutritious lunch of ham-cheese club sandwiches made with enriched bread, plus milk, deviled egg, tomatoes or fruit, and delicious bakers' pie. It's a winning team that's hearty and satisfying.

Ham-Cheese Club Sandwich

8 slices whole wheat bread 4 slices enriched bread 1/4 cup soft butter or margarine 4 slices boiled ham or bologna 4 slices American or Swiss cheese

Spread bread with butter. Place 1 slice of ham on each of 4 slices of whole wheat bread and cover each with 1 slice of enriched bread. Top each sandwich with 1 slice of cheese and another slice of whole wheat bread.

Yield: 4 Ham-Cheese Club Sandwiches.
