Mill City Hi-Lites

By GARY PETERSON

Mill City high school students voted Wednesday in student body elections with the resulting winners: president, Roy Chase; vice president, William Shepherd; treasurer, Betty Lou Cree; sergeant-at-arms, Elton Gregory; secretary, Carol Andreassen; publicity manager, Richard Lovel; advertising manager, Robert Keyes. Special additional elections became necessary because of close votes.

According to tradition, the candidates make campaign speeches, then leave the room to allow others to make speeches in their behalf.

The student body decided to have its annual picnic the 28th of May. The results of a vote upon places to hold this picnic were not immediately known, although Breitenbush seems to be the most likely spot.

The freshman class gave a party Friday night for the incoming freshmen next year. Reports indicate that this shindig was very successful.

Dale Andreassen, baritone soloist, earned an excellent "one" rating in the Solo Day conducted at Cascade Union high school Saturday of last week. Other members of the MCHS band performed well in this Solo Day.

Various MC students attended the Gates high school play "The Curious Savage" Wednesday afternoon.

Thursday evening the Letterman's club held initiation ceremonies for those recent letter-winners who wished to join the club. Yearly elections are to be held soon to select the organizational officers for next year.

Friday evening, the annual Junior-Senior banquet was held in the grade school. The affair ended early after a fine dinner and short program.

Correction: Donald Ragsdale does NOT want his name in the paper.
