(Continued from Page 2) liberty, is eternal vigilance. And there will be no such vigilance unless it is fired with moral sense, individual as well as social.

There will be more Harry Grosses and more "bought" police officers just so long as there are enough people who see no harm in playing the horses or the numbers, and enough others who just don't want to be bothered.—From the Christian Science Monitor.

Mill City Hi-Lites

By GARY PETERSON

Preparations have been going on for the semester exams, the baccalaureate and commencement, and for the annual school picnic.

The baccalaureate is next Sunday in the Presbyterian church at 5 p.m. Rev. Noble Streeter officiating.

The commencement exercises are at 8 o'clock May 29th in the grade school gym. Mill City high school band will play the processional and recessional. Mrs. Edith Mason, class advisor will make the awards.

The band will play the 30th in Memorial day observations in the grade school gym, and the following day march in a parade at Scio.

The MCHS annual, the Timberwolf, arrived early this week, and was distributed. At present, members of the student body are making the rounds getting autographs.

The track and baseball letters, along with the GAA awards will be presented in an assembly the last day of school.

Several MCHS students traveled to

The betrothal of Miss Juanita Downing, above, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Downing of Lyons, to Richard L. Brown of Medford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert E. Brown of Santa Ana, Calif., was announced recently.

Portland Monday night to watch Harry Matthews slug his way to a unanimous decision over Rex Layne.

Newspaper and verbal accounts of this fight indicate it was very juicy, to say the least.

The city council and the school board are to co-operate on full-time play supervisors if the budget is approved. These supervisors would be in charge of playground recreation. It has been evident for some time that this was badly needed. Various civic clubs are backing the move.

Speaking of recreation, when is the teen canteen going to be opened again?
